ORDER IN QUESTION

ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 20th day of February 2026, after a trial and consideration of the parties' proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and finding Respondents have established requested records are exempt, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

Petitioners', Charlie Wolfson and Public Source, request is denied, and the March 3, 2025, Final Determinations of the Office of Open Records (OOR) at docket number AP 2025-0246 is affirmed.

BY THE COURT:

_____,J.

STATEMENT OF THE SCOPE OF REVIEW AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

This Court's "review of a trial court's order in a RTKL dispute is limited to determining whether findings of fact are supported by competent evidence or whether the trial court committed an error of law, or an abuse of discretion in reaching its decision." Highlands Sch. Dist. v. Rittmeyer, 243 A.3d 755, 759 n.4 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2020) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

This Court's "scope of review for a question of law under the [RTKL] is plenary." Id. (citation omitted).

STATEMENT OF THE QUESTIONS INVOLVED

1. Did the lower court err in construing 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii) expansively to allow Appellees to redact the names or other identifying information of employees who are not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity?

   Suggested answer: Yes

2. Did the lower court err in finding there was sufficient evidence presented that disclosing name and salary information for Sheriff's deputies would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of the Sheriff's deputies, as required by 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii)?

   Suggested answer: Yes

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I. Form of Action

This matter arises under the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL"), codified at 65 P.S. §§ 67.101–67.3104. It comes before the Court on petition for review from the February 20, 2026 order and opinion of the Honorable Daniel D. Regan of the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas.

II. Procedural History

Appellant PublicSource, a nonprofit news organization serving the Pittsburgh region, and its reporter Charlie Wolfson, submitted a RTKL request on January 10, 2025 to Allegheny County (the "County"). R.1a. The request sought a digital file containing the names, salaries, and demographic information of all County employees for calendar year 2024. Id. Two weeks later, the County partially denied the request, directed Wolfson to publicly available information and asserted that employee names could be withheld pursuant to Section 708(b)(1)(ii), which exempts records for which disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm or to personal security (hereinafter, the "personal-security exemption"), and Section 708(b)(6)(iii), which permits an agency to redact identifying information relating to an individual engaged in undercover or covert law enforcement activity (hereinafter, the "undercover-officer exemption"). R.119a–120a. On January 30, 2025, Wolfson filed an appeal of the County's partial denial to the OOR. R.4a. During the OOR proceedings, both parties submitted position statements. R.4a–5a. On March 3, 2025 the OOR issued a Final Determination in favor of the County and denied Wolfson's request. See generally R.3a–15a. On March 31, 2025 Wolfson appealed the denial to the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County. R.16a.

While the County was the only Respondent at the OOR level, on appeal the offices of the District Attorney ("DA") and the Sheriff sought to intervene and assert the independent interests of their offices. R.29a. On October 6, 2025, the DA's and Sheriff's Uncontested Joint Petition to Intervene was granted. R.43a. On November 20, 2025, after settlement negotiations between the parties, the court approved the Stipulation of Discontinuance/Dismissal of the DA's Office, and on December 2, 2025, the court granted Allegheny County's Motion for Leave of Court for Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent Allegheny County Police Department. R.141a–142a.

The dismissal of the County and the DA's Office left the Sheriff's Office as the only Respondent. The trial court directed Appellants and the Sheriff's Office to submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and scheduled a non-jury trial for December 3, 2025. During that proceeding, testimony was elicited which dealt only with the propriety of the redactions of the identities of certain employees in the Sheriff's Office,[1] the Sheriff's Office called one witness: Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning (hereinafter, "Chief Manning"). R.178a. Following the hearing, the trial court denied Appellants' appeal and affirmed the OOR's Final Determination as it applied to the Sheriff's Office. The court issued its opinion and order on February 20, 2026, followed by an amended opinion on March 16, 2026 and an opinion of May 15, 2026.[2] Appellants timely filed the present appeal on March 19, 2026. R.250a.

[1] During the non-jury trial, Allegheny County submitted as an exhibit an Excel spreadsheet that contained 208 employees of the Sheriff's Office. R.122a–R.127a. Of that 208, 89 were redacted. Id.

[2] The March 16, 2026 and May 15, 2026 opinions corrected several inaccurate citations to the findings of facts and conclusions of law as well as changes to headings/formatting. R.243a; R.255a.

On May 26, 2026, the solicitor for Allegheny County filed an application to withdraw as counsel with this Honorable Court, clarifying that the instant appeal only pertains to the Sheriff's Office, which is an independent, elected position, and that as a County row office, the Sheriff's Office is represented by its own counsel (not the attorneys for the County). The Court granted the application to withdraw on June 15, 2026, and on the same day counsel for the Sheriff's Office entered an appearance.

III. The 2024 RTKL Request of PublicSource and Mr. Wolfson

Pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 2117(a)(2), Appellants include the following brief statement of any prior determination of any court or other government unit in the same case. Here, a prior determination of the OOR is germane.

On January 4, 2024, Wolfson submitted a RTKL request to the County, seeking a digital file containing the names, salaries, and basic demographic information of all County employees for calendar year 2023. R.275a. One week later, the County responded by directing Wolfson to information available on a government website. R.277a. That information, however, redacted the names of more than three-quarters of employees within the Sheriff's Office. See R.273a. On January 16, 2024, Wolfson timely appealed to the OOR. R.285a.

On February 26, 2024, the OOR issued a Final Determination concluding that the County had failed to establish that all redacted law enforcement employee names were exempt from disclosure under Section 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL. R.270a. The OOR directed the County to conduct a supplemental review of the redactions and provide Wolfson with an attestation describing both the review process and any resulting redactions. Id.

In response, on March 11, 2024, the County produced a signed affidavit from a Human Resources Department employee, R.51a–52a, and a revised spreadsheet containing salary and demographic information for County employees during calendar year 2023, R.53a–112a. The County limited its redactions to individuals allegedly "currently performing undercover work." R.51a (emphasis added). As a result of the supplemental review, approximately 17 percent of the spreadsheet remained redacted.

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

The trial court's order should be overturned for three separate reasons. First, it misinterpreted Section 708(b)(6)(iii) by stretching the undercover-officer exemption beyond its plain meaning to include deputies who worked previously in a covert or "undercover" capacity or might perform such work in the future, rather than just those currently "performing" such duties. Second, even if the exemption could apply more broadly to personnel other than current undercover officers, the Sheriff's Office didn't meet its burden of proving all 89 redacted deputies qualified for the exemption. Its own evidence showed the redacted deputies fell into three groups—those currently doing undercover work, those who had in the past year, and those who could be assigned in the future—yet the trial court granted a blanket exemption without requiring proof for each individual category. Third, the Sheriff's Office didn't show that releasing the names would likely cause a substantial, demonstrable risk to personal safety under Section 708(b)(1)(ii), relying instead on vague concerns about doxxing, threats, and hypothetical harm without tying them to any specific deputy or concrete facts. Because the trial court overbroadly construed a narrowly drawn RTKL exemption and accepted speculative, generalized claims instead of the individualized proof the law demands, the court's order should be reversed.

ARGUMENT

The Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL") is a remedial statute enacted to promote government transparency and public accountability. Bowling v. Off. of Open Recs., 990 A.2d 813, 824 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2010), aff'd, 75 A.3d 453 (Pa. 2013). Accordingly, records in the possession of a Commonwealth or local agency are presumed to be public, and that presumption may be overcome only if the agency establishes that a statutory exemption applies. 65 P.S. § 67.305(a); id. § 67.708(a)(1). Because the RTKL was designed to "promote access to official government information in order to prohibit secrets, scrutinize the actions of public officials, and make public officials accountable for their actions," courts must construe its exemptions narrowly. Off. of Governor v. Scolforo, 65 A.3d 1095, 1100 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2013) (quoting Bowling, 990 A.2d at 824).

These foundational principles govern this appeal. First, because exemptions must be narrowly construed, the Court must apply the plain language chosen by the General Assembly and may not expand the exemption provided in Section 708(b)(6)(iii) beyond its terms, as the trial court did here. Second, because the Sheriff's Office bore the burden of proof, it was required to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the claimed exemption applied to each category of information withheld and could not rely upon broad, categorical assertions regarding a large group of employees; the Sheriff's Office did not meet this burden. Third, because the RTKL requires evidence—not conjecture—to overcome the statute's presumption of openness, the Sheriff's Office was required to present competent evidence demonstrating that disclosure would create a substantial and demonstrable risk to personal security rather than merely identifying generalized concerns applicable to law enforcement personnel. See Governor's Off. of Admin. v. Purcell, 35 A.3d 811, 820 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011); Carey v. Pa. Dep't of Corr., 61 A.3d 367, 373 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2013). Again, the Sheriff's Office did not meet this burden. In ruling for the Sheriff's Office, the trial court departed from each of these governing principles, and the trial court's February 20, 2026 Order should therefore be reversed.

I. THE TRIAL COURT ERRED WHEN IT IMPERMISSIBLY EXPANDED SECTION 708(b)(6)(iii) BEYOND ITS PLAIN LANGUAGE

The RTKL provides for thirty exemptions to the general mandate of public access to government records. One of those exemptions permits "[a]n agency [to] redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii) (emphasis added). Because the RTKL "is remedial legislation designed to promote access to official government information . . . exemptions from disclosure must be narrowly construed," including the definition of the term "performing" in Section 708(b)(6)(iii). Pa. State Troopers Ass'n v. Scolforo, 18 A.3d 435, 439 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011) (quoting Bowling, 990 A.2d at 824). The lower court erred by expansively interpreting the term beyond the plain meaning of the statute.

First, the statute uses the gerund "performing," and does not state that it extends to any individual that "has performed," "will perform," "may perform" or any other past, future or potential performance. In other words, the exemption is, on its face, limited to individuals who are "currently undercover or covert operations officers." Vellucci v. S. Hills

Area Council of Gov't, No. AP 2024-0651, 2024 WL 2077397, at *5 (Pa. Off. Open Recs. May 1, 2024). That makes sense because, as the Commonwealth Court has made abundantly clear, the General Assembly "made the policy decision" in the RTKL that the name of a public official or an agency employee shall not be precluded from release except in one very narrow circumstance: when that official, employee, or police officer "is engaged in undercover or covert work." Pa. State Police v. McGill, 83 A.3d 476, 480 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2014).

The trial court impermissibly framed the issue as whether the Sheriff's Office could redact information about an individual who was not performing undercover or covert activity, but who might still face some security risk if identified.

Interpreting this unambiguous language to include past or future activity is contrary to the plain language of the statute, lacks any limiting principle, and would thus lead to a vastly overbroad withholding of information that the RTKL requires to be public. For example, a Pennsylvania agency could redact the names of employees who performed undercover activities over a decade ago or who might go undercover sometime in the unidentified distant future.

That is exactly what happened in this case. On cross-examination, Chief Manning admitted that uniformed and identifiable deputies assigned at courthouses could be assigned to an undercover role at a future time. R.222a. Based on Chief Manning's logic, a police officer who would not be assigned an undercover role in January might be chosen for an undercover role in July, and because of that possibility, his identity would be redacted and be exempted from disclosure. That logic runs afoul of the spirit and intent of the RTKL.

Such an overinclusive interpretation would also eviscerate the provision that appears immediately before this exemption in the RTKL, which provides:

> Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the release of the name, position, salary, actual compensation or other payments or expenses, employment contract, employment-related contract or agreement and length of service of a public official or an agency employee.

65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(ii).

This statutory provision, in conjunction with the ensuing exemption, mandates that "[t]he only name of a public employee that cannot be released is the name of an individual, whether a police officer or not, who is engaged in undercover or covert work." McGill, 83 A.3d at 480 (emphasis added); see also Peirce v. Pa. Off. of Admin., 2014 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 810 (Pa. Off. Open Recs. July 29, 2014).

The Sheriff's Office knows which of its law enforcement officers are engaged in active undercover work. Chief Manning testified that there is a "static number of definitive detectives doing undercover or plainclothes work" on "a regular basis." R.187a, 189a–190a. The Sheriff's Office's position that it nonetheless may redact and withhold the names of twice that "static number" of individuals—including the names of law enforcement officers who are merely "believe[d]" to be going undercover, R.175a, or are "most likely [to] go" undercover, R.177a—is inconsistent with the plain language of the RTKL.

If the Pennsylvania legislature "intended the exemption to cover individuals who may be tasked with performing undercover activities, it would have said so." R.173a (emphasis added). Instead, in enacting the RTKL, Pennsylvania lawmakers designed a statute "to promote access to official government information," McKelvey v. Pa. Dep't of Health, 255 A.3d 385, 400 (Pa. 2021) (citation omitted), through a strict interpretation of its statutory exemptions, Am. C.L. Union of Pa. v. Pa. State Police, 232 A.3d 654, 656 (Pa. 2020). Accordingly, this Court should reverse the trial court's decision and require the release of the names of officers who are not currently performing undercover duties.

II. THE TRIAL COURT COLLAPSED TWO DISTINCT RTKL EXEMPTIONS INTO ONE, RENDERING THE UNDERCOVER WORK EXEMPTION MEANINGLESS

The trial court's analysis cannot be reconciled with the structure of the RTKL itself. The General Assembly created two separate exemptions that address two separate concerns. Section 708(b)(6)(iii) protects the name or identifying information relating to an individual "performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii) (the "undercover-officer exemption"). Section 708(b)(1)(ii), by contrast, protects records whose disclosure "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii) (the "personal-security exemption"). The former is a targeted exemption directed at a specific category of law enforcement activity; the latter is a generally applicable exemption requiring proof of a concrete security risk. The trial court blurred that distinction and, in doing so, relieved the Sheriff's Office of meeting its burden to justify withholding under each exemption.

This conflation of two independent and separate exemptions lacks any support in the law. For the personal-security exemption to apply, the agency invoking the exemption must show that there was a "reasonable likelihood" of a "substantial and demonstrable risk to a person's personal security." Posey v. Dep't of Corr., 329 A.3d 864, 869 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2025) (quoting Del. Cnty. v. Schaefer ex rel. Phila. Inquirer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2012)). A "substantial and demonstrable risk" is a risk that is "actual or real and apparent." Id. (quoting Borough of Pottstown v. Suber-Aponte, 202 A.3d 173, 180 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2019)); see also McGill, 83 A.3d at 480 (declaring that "[a]bsent particularized concerns about the personal security of an individual, the General Assembly has made the policy decision that 'nothing . . . shall preclude the release of the name . . . of a public official or an agency employee'" (quoting 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(ii))).

Because the RTKL's exemptions must be narrowly construed and the statute is remedial in nature, this Court has repeatedly emphasized that courts may not enlarge exemptions beyond the language chosen by the General Assembly. Bowling, 990 A.2d at 824; Scolforo, 65 A.3d at 1100.

The Sheriff's Office already demonstrated that it could not satisfy the requirements of the undercover-officer exemption Section 708(b)(6)(iii) for many of the deputies whose names were withheld. During his testimony, Chief Manning reviewed a list of deputies whose names were redacted. While reviewing the full list of all deputies' names (both redacted and unredacted), he testified that the redacted group included not only deputies currently assigned to undercover or covert functions, but also deputies who had participated in such work within the previous year and deputies who merely might be called upon to perform such work in the future. R.199a–203a. The statute, however, only protects the names of individuals "performing" undercover or covert law enforcement activity. It does not protect everyone who has ever performed such work, nor everyone who may someday perform such work. Had the General Assembly intended to create a broader exemption encompassing former undercover officers, prospective undercover officers, or all members of a potential investigative pool, it easily could have done so. It did not.

Unable to fit all 89 redactions within the confines of the undercover-officer exemption of Section 708(b)(6)(iii), the trial court effectively invoked the personal-security exemption of Section 708(b)(1)(ii) to fill the gap. But that approach creates a fundamental statutory problem. If the generalized possibility that an individual may participate in undercover work is sufficient to establish a personal-security exemption, then the limitations embedded in Section 708(b)(6)(iii) cease to have any practical meaning. Under the trial court's reasoning, an agency could withhold the identity of virtually any officer who previously engaged in undercover work, who occasionally assists in surveillance operations, or who may be assigned to an investigative detail in the future, notwithstanding the General Assembly's decision in this context to confer special protection only upon (a) individuals actually "performing" undercover or covert activities or (b) those whose security would actually be threatened by disclosure. But the statute cannot reasonably be interpreted to mean that anyone with even a tenuous connection to potential undercover work would face a concrete threat to their personal security if their identity were revealed.

Pennsylvania courts do not construe statutes in a manner that renders statutory language superfluous. See 1 Pa.C.S. § 1922(2) (presuming that the General Assembly intends an entire statute to be effective and certain). The trial court's interpretation violates that fundamental principle. Section 708(b)(6)(iii) reflects a legislative judgment that a specific and identifiable category of law enforcement personnel warrants categorical protection. By contrast, Section 708(b)(1)(ii) requires an evidentiary showing that disclosure would create a reasonable likelihood of a substantial and demonstrable risk to personal security. The provisions serve different functions and impose different burdens. The former turns on status and activity; the latter turns on proof of risk.

The Commonwealth Court's personal-security cases confirm that distinction. To invoke Section 708(b)(1)(ii), an agency must establish "(1) a reasonable likelihood of (2) substantial and demonstrable risk to a person's security." Purcell, 35 A.3d at 820 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). A substantial and demonstrable risk must be "actual or real and apparent," Carey, 61 A.3d at 373, and "[m]ore than mere conjecture is needed," Purcell, 35 A.3d at 820 (citation omitted).

Yet the trial court's analysis effectively presumed the existence of a personal security risk from the mere fact that some members of the redacted group had participated, or might participate, in undercover activity. That is precisely the type of categorical reasoning the RTKL forbids. The General Assembly created a specific exemption for undercover officers and a separate exemption for demonstrated security risks. The Sheriff's Office was required to satisfy one or the other. It could not evade the limitations of Section 708(b)(6)(iii) by invoking generalized security concerns under Section 708(b)(1)(ii) and thereby obtain protection for a much broader class of employees than the legislature authorized.

The consequence of the trial court's ruling extends well beyond this case. If allowed to stand, any law enforcement agency could convert the narrow undercover-officer exemption into a sweeping personnel exemption simply by asserting that disclosure of an employee's identity might create some future security concern because that employee had participated—or could participate—in investigative work. Such a construction would substantially expand the scope of nondisclosure while simultaneously eliminating the limiting language the General Assembly deliberately included in Section 708(b)(6)(ii). The RTKL does not permit that result, and this Court should reject it.

III. THE TRIAL COURT GAVE IMPROPER WEIGHT TO CHIEF MANNING'S GENERALIZED CONCERNS OF OFFICER SAFETY

The trial court's opinion relies almost entirely on Chief Manning's testimony that disclosure creates unspecified "concerns" regarding threats, doxxing, and risks to deputies and their families. R.248a. The trial court erroneously relied on this testimony to rule that the personal-security exemption applied to the requested records. But Pennsylvania law repeatedly requires more than generalized security concerns to allow an agency to withhold public records.

For the exemption to apply, this Court's precedents require an agency to present evidence of a "reasonable likelihood of . . . substantial and demonstrable risk to a person's security." Purcell, 35 A.3d at 820 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). When assessing what is a "reasonable likelihood," courts "look to the likelihood that disclosure would cause the alleged harm, requiring more than speculation." Cal. Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2018) (quoting Carey, 61 A.3d at 375). It is the agency's burden to prove, by a "preponderance of the evidence" that the disclosure "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(a)(1), (b)(1)(ii) (emphasis added). Mere conjecture is not sufficient to justify withholding under the personal-security exemption. Rothey, 185 A.3d at 468.

This Court's decision in the Purcell case is instructive. The requester there sought the full birth date of state employees from the Governor's Office of Administration (GOA). The GOA denied the request under the personal-security exemption and supported its denial with specific evidence, including a letter from the district attorney warning of the increase of identity theft when criminals have dates of birth of potential targets, an affidavit from an identity-theft expert, and an affidavit from the Commonwealth's chief information security officer that releasing dates of birth of all state employees would create a proliferation of identity-theft crimes. Purcell, 35 A.3d at 813–14. The Purcell court made specific findings of fact based on those official statements, studies, and expert opinions and ruled that full birth dates of state employees were exempt. Id. at 818–19.

In a similar case relying on Purcell, this Court held that any "denial under the RTKL must be supported by demonstrable evidence, such as the sworn Affidavits submitted in Purcell that the release of the specific information about a person would be reasonably likely to result in substantial risk to his personal security." Schaefer, 45 A.3d at 1158. The Schaefer court remanded the case back to the trial court to "allow the County the opportunity to develop the record and submit evidence to support its position." Id. at 1159.

And, even more recently, this Court rejected an agency's attempts to shield names under Section 708(b)(1)(ii) in a case involving a RTKL request for correctional officers' first and middle names or initials. In finding that the Department of Corrections had not met its burden, the Court explained:

> In sum, permitting such perfunctory rejections of requests effectively imposes a per se rule against the release of certain categories of records with a basis only in OOR precedent, rather than the RTKL itself. Furthermore, such blanket denials are incongruent with the well-settled principle that "the exceptions to disclosure of public records must be narrowly construed" pursuant to "the RTKL's goal of promoting government transparency and its remedial nature."

Posey, 329 A.3d at 872 (quoting In re Melamed, 287 A.3d 491, 498 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2022)).

Here, the evidence presented in the trial court fell well below that standard. Chief Manning testified generally that sheriff's deputies participate in sensitive investigations involving federal task forces, surveillance operations, fugitive apprehensions, narcotics investigations, child-exploitation cases, and crowd-control activities. R.186a–189a. He further expressed concerns regarding potential doxxing or threats to deputies and their families, and the general possibility that individuals under investigation could identify law enforcement personnel. R.204a. Yet Chief Manning identified no specific deputy who had been threatened as a result of public disclosure, no ongoing investigation that would be compromised by release of the requested records, and no concrete instance in which disclosure of a deputy's name resulted in harm to officer safety. Instead, he described concerns that law enforcement agencies face "in general," and a "myriad of concerns" associated with placing identifying information in the public domain. Id.

Equally important, the Sheriff's evidence established that many of the redacted deputies were not actively engaged in undercover work at all. Chief Manning testified that approximately 44 to 45 deputies constituted the Sheriff's "static" investigative group, while the remaining redacted deputies were drawn from a larger pool of personnel who may be utilized for surveillance or investigative assignments as operational needs arise. R.189a–191a. He further testified that deputies' names were redacted if they were assigned to investigative units, had worked such investigations within the previous year, or were "potentially going to be called" for future operations. R.193a. Indeed, Chief Manning acknowledged that roughly forty-five of the redacted deputies were individuals who "may or may not go undercover covert." R.196a (emphasis added). Chief Manning's failed to testify that the release of any of the deputies' names showed a "reasonable likelihood of . . . substantial and demonstrable risk to [a deputy's] security." Accordingly, the trial court's reliance on this testimony to support the exemption was erroneous, and therefore, the trial court's order should be reversed.

IV. THE COURT INCORRECTLY RELIED ON FUTURE POSSIBILITIES RATHER THAN CURRENT FACTS TO FIND THAT THE EXEMPTION APPLIED

On several occasions during the hearing, Chief Manning could only speculate who the Sheriff's Office believed would be assigned to an undercover role. R.195a–196a, 203a–204a, 222a. This speculation is the exact equivocation and uncertainty that this Court has cautioned agencies against when trying to skirt RTKL compliance.

The RTKL is "remedial legislation designed to promote access to official government information in order to prohibit secrets, scrutinize the actions of public officials, and make public officials accountable for their actions." Suber-Aponte, 202 A.3d at 179 (quoting Bowling, 990 A.2d at 824). The RTKL asks whether a record is exempt "at the time of [the] request." McKelvey v. Off. of Att'y Gen., 172 A.3d 122, 125 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017) (citation omitted).

During the trial, Chief Manning was asked whether deputies could be assigned to serve in an undercover role "at some point in the future," to which he said: "Yes." R.222a. The possibility that a deputy may someday participate in covert work does not establish that the deputy is presently protected under Section 708(b)(6)(iii). The court's reasoning effectively creates a perpetual exemption for a large class of deputies based on hypothetical future assignments. That testimony is inherently predictive and based on future possibilities, and therefore, the trial court's reasoning to support redaction under the undercover-officer exemption was incorrect.

V. THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE FAILED TO ESTABLISH THAT THE EXEMPTION APPLIED TO ALL 89 DEPUTIES

Chief Manning expressly admitted that he redacted deputies in three separate categories. The Sheriff's own evidence established that the 89 redacted deputies did not constitute a single class of employees currently engaged in undercover or covert law enforcement activity. Rather, Chief Manning testified that approximately "44, 45ish" deputies were part of the Sheriff's "static" group that regularly performed undercover, covert, investigative, or taskforce work. R.189a. He further explained that the Sheriff's Office routinely draws additional personnel from a larger pool of courthouse deputies whenever taskforce operations or surveillance details require additional staffing. R.190a–191a.

Most significantly, when asked to explain the criteria used to determine which names would be withheld, Chief Manning testified: "They are either assigned to one of those units, they've worked that type of investigation" and "they are those that are potentially going to be called" from the larger pool for future assignments. R.193a. When counsel sought clarification, Chief Manning confirmed that the redacted list included individuals who had worked such investigations "within the last year." Id.

Thus, by the Sheriff's own testimony, the 89 redacted deputies consisted of at least three distinct groups: (1) deputies presently assigned to undercover or covert units; (2) deputies who had participated in such investigations within the previous year; and (3) deputies who were merely considered potential candidates for future undercover or investigative assignments. Chief Manning later acknowledged that roughly forty-five of the redacted deputies fell into the latter category of personnel who "may or may not go undercover covert." R.196a.

The RTKL places the burden on the agency to prove that an exemption applies to the information withheld. 65 P.S. § 67.708(a)(1). Yet the Sheriff's Office offered no individualized evidence demonstrating which of the 89 deputies belonged to each category or why each category independently satisfied the claimed exemption. Instead, the trial court approved a blanket redaction of all 89 names despite evidence that many of those deputies were not currently engaged in undercover or covert activities at all.

The absence of individualized findings is particularly significant because Chief Manning repeatedly testified that assignments change constantly. See R.185a–195a. He explained that deputies move in and out of investigative positions, that the list was already inaccurate within months of its creation, and that the Sheriff's Office could not predict with certainty who would be assigned to future operations. Id. Those admissions underscore that the Sheriff's Office was not only withholding the identities of deputies currently performing undercover work; rather, it was attempting to withhold the identities of a fluid and expanding group of employees who had performed such work in the past or might do so in the future.

Having established the existence of materially different categories of deputies, the Sheriff's Office was required to demonstrate why each category qualified for the asserted exemption. It failed to do so, and the trial court erred by treating all 89 deputies as a single exempt class.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, this Court should reverse the trial court's order and grant Appellants' appeal.

On December 30, 2025, Respondents filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. On January 2, 2026, Petitioners filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

Discussion

I. Standard of Review

The trial court's is the ultimate finder of fact in a RTKL statutory appeal, its standard review is de novo, and its scope of review is plenary. Bowling v. Office of Open Records, 75 A.3d 453, 474 (Pa. 2013).

II. Argument

A. Whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The issue is whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Right to Know Law ("RTKL") states that "an agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii).

At trial, Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning, testified to the following: he has been working for the Sheriff's Office since 1999 and currently oversees operations; the Sherrif's Office has between 161 and 165 Deputy Sheriffs; the Sheriffs are fully fledged police officers; the Sheriffs Office includes three fugitive units, federal task forces with the FBI and DEA, as well as investigations into sex travelers, sex traffickers, counterfeit merchandise, and drug and gun crimes; and 44 or 45 of those Deputy Sheriffs are performing undercover or covert activities on a regular basis. 12/3/25 Tr. at 30-36.

Pursuant to § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), the Sheriff's Office may redact the names or other identifying information of those individuals.

Furthermore, the Commonwealth Court has stated:

> Section 708(b)(1)(ii) of the RTKL states that records are exempt which, if disclosed, "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to[,] or the personal security of[,] an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). "[U]nder this exception, the agency must demonstrate (1) a 'reasonable likelihood' of (2) a 'substantial and demonstrable risk' to a person's personal security." Del. Cty. v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). In order to show a reasonable likelihood, "[a]n agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture to establish the security-related exceptions under the [RTKL]." California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2018). This Court has "defined substantial and demonstrable [risk] as actual or real and apparent." Carey, 61 A.3d at 373 (emphasis added).

> This Court has recognized that the RTKL's security-related exceptions are of particular concern in police and prison settings. See Carey. This Court has also upheld an OOR determination to exempt from disclosure a record that "would, if made public, assist criminals in their efforts to achieve a criminal objective[.]" Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). Finally, this Court has ruled that opinions regarding safety and security rendered by a law enforcement officer with over 20 years of experience are "not mere speculation or conjecture." Id.

Id. at 183.

At trial, Chief Deputy Manning testified to, in addition to the above, the following: when the Sheriff's Office needs more people to perform undercover or covert activities, it draws from its pool of deputy sheriffs who work "bank hours" in courthouses; the frequency the Sheriff's Office uses additional deputies to perform undercover or covert work "depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well"; the 89 names redacted from the record at issue are those Deputy Sheriffs that perform undercover work, have been in one of those units in the year, or are in the pool of Deputy Sheriffs who may be called upon to perform undercover work; any of those individuals could be assigned to undercover or covert activities; and disclosing names or other identifying information of those individuals, or "doxxing," raised "concerns" regarding "threats" to the Sheriff Deputies and their families. See 12/3/25 Tr. 38-40, 42-44, and 50-51.

Based on Chief Deputy Manning's testimony, this court finds there is sufficient evidence that disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of the said Sheriff Deputies and their families. Furtehrmore, Chief Deputy Manning's testimony at trial, like the testimony in Borough of Pottstown, consisted of much more than a general conclusion of speculative harm. Chief Deputy Manning specifically detailed the real and apparent threats to the Deputies as well as their families.

Therefore, the Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

III. Conclusion

Based on the argument set forth above, this court finds the Final Determination of the OOR is affirmed, and Petitioner's Appeal is denied.

In view of the foregoing, I enter a separate Order of Court:

Requester	:
v.	:	Docket No: AP 2025-0246
ALLEGHENY COUNTY,	:
Respondent	:

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On January 10, 2025, Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource (collectively the "Requester") submitted a request ("Request") to Allegheny County ("County") pursuant to the Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL"), 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 et seq., seeking:

> …[I]nformation for all individuals employed by [the County] during 2024, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.
> Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.
>
> This [R]equest includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.
> This is a different data set than is posted on [the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center ("WPRDC")], because the WPRDC dataset has additional redactions among law enforcement officers[.]

On January 24, 2025, following a thirty-day extension during which to respond, 65 P.S. § 67.902(b), the County partially denied the Request. The County provided a publicly available website link in order for the Requester to obtain the records responsive to the Request, 65 P.S. § 67.704(b)(1).[1] The County asserted that the responsive records contained redacted material that is not subject to disclosure due to the personal security of its employees, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii), the likelihood of jeopardizing or threatening public safety, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(2),[2] revealing the names of law enforcement officers performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), and revealing the enrollment in a health care program, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(5).

On January 30, 2025, the Requester filed an appeal with the Office of Open Records ("OOR"), challenging the denial and stating grounds for disclosure.[3] The OOR invited both parties to supplement the record and directed the County to notify any third parties of their ability to participate in this appeal. 65 P.S. § 67.1101(c).

On February 18, 2025, the Requester submitted a position statement, asserting that the County redacted names of far more law enforcement officers[4] than those currently involved in undercover activity.[5] Additionally, the Requester claims the County is acting in bad faith by failing to provide the names of the public employees.

[1] The OOR last attempted access on February 26, 2025 and was able to locate records responsive to the Request at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries.

[2] Because the County abandoned its public safety argument under Section 708(b)(2), the OOR will not further address the argument in this Final Determination.

[3] On February 21, 2025, the Requester granted the OOR a one-week extension to issue a Final Determination. See 65 P.S. § 67.1101(b)(1) ("Unless the requester agrees otherwise, the appeals officer shall make a final determination which shall be mailed to the requester and the agency within 30 days of receipt of the appeal filed under subsection (a).").

[4] The Requester claims that redactions include more than three quarters of all employees in the County Sheriff's Department and two thirds of all employee names in the County Police Department. See Requester position statement p. 1.

[5] The County notes that it redacted names of employees at the Kane Regional Centers based upon modified duty positions and based upon an individual being a victim of a violent crime. See Nagle Attestation ¶ 4. As the Requester only challenges the redaction of the names of law enforcement officers made by the County, the redactions of the

On February 20, 2025, the County submitted a position statement, reiterating its grounds for partially denying the Request. The County additionally claims that it is not required to provide any requester with a list of employees in which only the employees currently working undercover are redacted because the list could be requested a number of times, allowing a requester to determine the employees that move in and out of an undercover capacity. In support of its position, the County submitted three attestations made subject to the penalties of unsworn falsification to authorities, 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904, authored by: Nichole L. Nagle ("Nagle Attestation"), the Employee Relations Manager for the County Department of Human Resources; Christopher Kearns ("Kearns Attestation"), Superintendent of the County Police Department; and John P. Goodrich, Esq. ("Goodrich Attestation"), the Solicitor for the County Sheriff. Additionally, the County submitted an affidavit, duly sworn, authored by Rebecca D. Spangler, Esq. ("Spangler Attestation"), the First Assistant District Attorney and Agency Open Records Officer ("AORO") for the County District Attorney's Office.[6]

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The County is a local agency subject to the RTKL. 65 P.S. § 67.302. Records in the possession of a local agency are presumed to be public, unless exempt under the RTKL or other law or protected by a privilege, judicial order or decree. See 65 P.S. § 67.305. As an agency subject to the RTKL, the County is required to demonstrate, "by a preponderance of the evidence," that records are exempt from public access. 65 P.S. § 67.708(a)(1). Preponderance of the evidence has been defined as "such proof as leads the fact-finder … to find that the existence of a contested names of the employees at the Kane Regional Center and the claimed exemptions related thereto will not be further addressed in this Final Determination. Of note, Kane Community Living Centers are nursing facilities. See https://www.alleghenycounty.us/Services/Seniors/Kane-Community-Living-Centers (last accessed by OOR on February 26, 2025).

[6] The County's submissions were received after the record closed; however, to develop the record, the submissions were considered. See 65 P.S. § 67.1102(b)(3) (stating that "the appeals officer shall rule on procedural matters on the basis of justice, fairness, and the expeditious resolution of the dispute").

fact is more probable than its nonexistence." Pa. State Troopers Ass'n v. Scolforo, 18 A.3d 435, 439 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011) (quoting Pa. Dep't of Transp. v. Agric. Lands Condemnation Approval Bd., 5 A.3d 821, 827 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2010)).

1. The County has demonstrated it appropriately redacted names of law enforcement officers performing undercover or covert activities

Section 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL exempts from disclosure "the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii) (emphasis added). The County argues that it is not required to provide the Requester with a list that contains only redactions of law enforcement officers currently working undercover. To do so, the County reasons, would allow the list to be requested a number of times, allowing a requester to determine the employees that move in and out of an undercover capacity. The County argues this would be contrary to the RTKL's explicit protection of the identities of undercover law enforcement officers. In support of the County's position, the Nagle Attestation indicates, in relevant part, the following:

> 2. The County publishes salary and demographic information online at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries. Data for individuals employed in the Executive Branch departments, Row Offices and the Office of County Council who worked for the County in 2024 is currently available.
> 3. Before the data is published, I review it to ensure the names of every individual whose job title indicates that they are, or could be assigned to perform an undercover or covert law enforcement activity[,] are redacted because assignments are not static. Two examples are detectives who work for the Office of the District Attorney [("DAO")] and sergeants with the [County] Police Department [("PD")].

In further support of the County's position, the Kearns Attestation notes as follows:

> 2. The [PD] is aware that [the County] publishes salary and demographic information online at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries. Before this information is published, the [PD] requests that the County's Human Resources Department redact[] the first and last name of all [PD] sergeants, lieutenants, and most of our police officers.

3. The redactions at issue are necessary because publicizing these names could result in a substantial risk to the personal security of these officers.

4. Our Department has three uniform divisions and three detective divisions. Every January[,] we transfer officers and detectives between and among the various uniform districts and detective divisions. Some members may be transferred quickly after short stays within a unit or district, others may stay for longer periods of time. In addition to regular annual transfers, members may be transferred throughout the year. Particularly these detective units, but our uniform districts also, are called upon in a variety of high risk, dangerous situations.

5. One of our detective units that members transfer into and out of is the narcotics/vice unit, which unit utilizes their members in an undercover capacity. Very often, the investigations persist for days, months and sometimes years. Any of the [PD] police officers, sergeants, and lieutenants whose names are redacted may be called upon to perform undercover law enforcement functions. If the [PD] provided lists of police officers with redactions only for those officers currently performing undercover law enforcement functions at the snapshot in time that the list is provided, this would compromise the safety and security of the officers. We would expect multiple requests throughout the years in an effort to determine which officers' names went in and out of redaction. It would be reasonable to conclude thereby that those officers perform undercover functions.

6. The redaction is done in an attempt to shield the identification and disclosure of our members, as well as the chain of command, which could endanger the personal safety of these officers and make them and their families targets of the violent individuals they have or will seek to apprehend.

Additionally, the Spangler Affidavit provides the following:

…The [DAO] has an Investigations Unit to which approximately 20 detectives are assigned.

These detectives work interchangeably on the District Attorney's Narcotics Enforcement Team, the Gun Violence Task Force, Nuisance Property and Bar Task Force, and complex fraud and theft investigation cases. Any and all of the detectives may be assigned to work undercover surveillance in any of these investigations along with other law enforcement agencies. For the safety of the individual officers and the integrity of investigations, the names and other identifying information of the [DAO] detectives must be redacted.

Lastly, the Goodrich Attestation provides the following support for the County's position:

3. As the Solicitor for the [Sheriff's] Office, I am aware of the many dangers and the potential harm that our sworn personnel are subject to in the due course of their duty.

> 4. The [Sheriff's Office] is aware that [the County] publishes salary and demographic information online at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries. Before this information is published, the [Sheriff's Office] requests that the County's Human Resources Department redact[] names of all [Sheriff's Office] investigative sworn personnel[,] as well as members of the Federal Task Force.
> 5. The redactions at issue are necessary because publicizing these names would result in a substantial risk to the personal security of these officers.
> 6. The requested redactions remain until members transfer out of the respective units.
> 7. The officers' redactions are necessary to protect sworn personnel so they are not targeted by dangerous suspects. The disclosure of their identity would endanger them and their families as targets of the violent individuals they have or will seek to apprehend.

Under the RTKL, a sworn affidavit or attestation may serve as sufficient evidentiary support. See Sherry v. Radnor Twp. Sch. Dist., 20 A.3d 515, 520-21 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011); Moore v. Office of Open Records, 992 A.2d 907, 909 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2010). In the absence of any evidence that the County has acted in bad faith, "the averments in [the attestations and affidavit] should be accepted as true." McGowan v. Pa. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 103 A.3d 374, 382-83 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2014) (citing Office of the Governor v. Scolforo, 65 A.3d 1095, 1103 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2013)).

The Requester claims that the County may only redact the names of law enforcement officers that are actively "involved in undercover activity." The Requester relies upon Wolfson v. Allegheny County, OOR Dkt. AP 2024-0196, 2024 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 513, to support his position. In Wolfson, the OOR directed the County to conduct a supplemental review of the redaction of law enforcement officer names to ensure only names exempt pursuant to Section 708(b)(6)(iii) were made in the responsive records. Id. The OOR directed the County to perform said search based upon the County's failure to claim any RTKL exemptions permitting the redaction or withholding of records. Id. Of note, the OOR in Wolfson did not specify whether that review was limited to past, present or future performance of undercover or covert law enforcement activity. Id.

Section 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL indicates that the name of an individual "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity may be redacted. Neither the RTKL nor the Statutory Construction Act of 1972, 1 Pa.C.S. §§ 1501 et seq., defines the term "performing" and therefore, the word must "be construed according to the rules of grammar and to [its] common and approved usage...." 1 Pa.C.S. § 1903(a). "Performing" is defined as "of, relating to, or constituting an art" when used as an adjective; however, "perform" when used as a verb is defined as to "carry out, do." Merriam-Webster, available at https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/performing; Merriam-Webster, available at https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/perform (last accessed on February 27, 2025). In order to use performing as a verb, a helping verb, i.e., the verb "is," becomes necessary to determine the tense of "performing," whether it is past, present or future. For example, "is performing," "was performing," or "will be performing"—present progressive, past progressive and future progressive tense.[7] Section 708(b)(6)(iii) is silent as to whether "performing" is present, past or future tense; thereby, based on the plain language of Section 708(b)(6)(iii) and the rules of statutory construction, the County may redact a law enforcement officer's name who either is performing, was performing, or will be performing undercover or covert activities.[8] The plain language of a statute generally provides the best indication of legislative intent, and as a result, if the legislature intended to only refer to law enforcement officers currently performing undercover or covert activities, this would have been specified in Section 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL.

In further support of this interpretation, the OOR has previously found that the protection of law enforcement officers that perform undercover or covert activities was paramount. In Barry v. Pa. Governor's Office of Admin., OOR Dkt. AP 2020-2363, 2020 PA O.O.R.D LEXIS 2363, the OOR found that a list of users that utilize a criminal justice database was not subject to disclosure under the RTKL because some of the users perform undercover or covert law enforcement activities, and the status of the individuals performing said activities could change at any time without notice to the database. Id. The OOR indicated that the disclosure of the list of users would include undercover law enforcement officers and, as a result, "would be reasonably likely to result in substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual." Id. The list of users was found to be exempt under Section 708(b)(1) of the RTKL because of the potential of the users performing undercover and covert law enforcement activities. See 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1).

Section 708(b)(1) of the RTKL exempts from public disclosure "[a] record the disclosure of which . . . would be reasonably likely to result in substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). Actual evidence of physical harm is not required, as the agency's burden is to "meet the preponderance of the evidence standard, the lowest evidentiary standard, [] tantamount to a more likely than not inquiry." Id. (internal citation omitted). The personal security exception addresses risks of harm to, and the personal security of, "an individual," rather than the general public. 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). It may apply to a group of individuals "based upon evidence that establishes that the release of certain information poses a likelihood of a substantial and demonstrable risk to the personal security of that group of individuals." Crocco v. Pa. Dep't of Health, 214 A.3d 316 (Pa. 2019) (quoting State Emps. Ret. Sys. v. Fultz, 107 A.3d 860, 868 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2015)). The courts have recognized that the RTKL's security-related exemptions are of particular concern in police and prison settings. See Borough of Pottstown v. Suber-Aponte, 202 A.3d 173, 183 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2019).

In this instance, the County claims that multiple requests for the same information at different times would positively identify these undercover or covert law enforcement officers or allow the officers to be identified upon comparison of the lists, and as such the redactions are appropriate under the RTKL's personal security exception. To establish that this exemption applies, an agency must show: (1) a "reasonable likelihood" of (2) "substantial and demonstrable risk" to a person's security. Del. County v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2012); Bayne v. New Kensington City, OOR Dkt. AP 2021-0106, 2021 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 176. "Reasonably likely" has been interpreted as "requiring more than speculation." Carey v. Pa. Dep't of Corr., 61 A.3d 367, 374-75 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2013); see also California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2018) (holding that an agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture and must prove that the alleged risk is substantial, demonstrable and real or apparent to establish the security-related exceptions under the RTKL). The County argues that publicly disclosing these officer's identities would create a substantial risk to their safety and the safety of their families, by virtue of being able to determine whether the officers may have been undercover or participating in covert operations and who could participate in undercover or covert operations based upon the officer's transfer into different units.

In Tribune-Democrat v. City of Johnstown, the requester sought the current police force roster, including starting employment dates, and the City argued that both the roster and the starting dates were exempt under Section 708(b)(1)(ii) because three officers on the police force were involved in a shooting death and that threats had been made against the police force. See OOR Dkt. AP 2012-1542, 2012 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 1280. Considering the evidence and Section 708(b)(6)(iii), the OOR found that the names of the entire police force were not exempt from disclosure, but that the officer starting dates were exempt because a third party would be able to compare the starting dates to the officer names to then identify the three officers involved in the shooting. Id. The OOR has also held that the identity of law enforcement involved in specified events may be withheld where the evidence demonstrates that those named officers could be subject to retaliation or harm as a result of their involvement in that event. See Fennell v. Pa. Dep't. of Corr., OOR Dkt. AP 2015-1944, 2015 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 1687 (holding that the last names of correctional officers who transported a specific inmate after an assault were exempt under the personal security exemption where evidence was presented that those officers could be the subject of retaliation); Bayne v. New Kensington City, OOR Dkt. AP 2021-0106, 2021 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 176 (holding the names of officers involved in an officer-involved shooting are exempt under the personal security exemption where the agency submitted credible evidence that the public disclosure of officer identities would place such officers at greater risk of retaliation or harm); Steinheiser v. SEPTA, OOR Dkt. AP 2022-1908, 2022 PA O.O.R.D. LEXIS 2352 (holding that a video which would reveal the identities of SEPTA personnel and police officers involved in a specified incident may be redacted to shield those individuals' identities pursuant to the personal security exemption).

The OOR has additionally previously found that a police force need not submit prior examples of actual harm inflicted on an officer or his family after the public release of their names in relation to an officer-involved shooting to demonstrate a credible risk to an officer. Johnstown, supra (holding that Section 708(b)(1) exempted from public disclosure records that would identify officers involved in a shooting death even though there was no actual evidence of physical harm to officers).

Furthermore, the Commonwealth Court upheld the OOR's determination that exempted from disclosure records which, if made public, would jeopardize the personal safety of many individuals, reasoning that the opinions regarding safety and security rendered by a law enforcement officer with over twenty years of experience are "not mere speculation or conjecture." Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2012). Recently, however, in Posey v. Dep't of Corr., the Commonwealth Court held that the names of prison employees could not be withheld or restricted without the provision of some evidence showing a risk of harm. 2025 Pa. Commw. LEXIS 18.

In this matter, the County has provided evidence that undercover and covert activity assignments are not static, officers transfer in and out of units--including narcotics and vice units, officers work interchangeably with dangerous units such as narcotics and gun violence and that sworn investigative personnel and Federal Task Force Agents are targets of dangerous suspects. See Nagle Attestation ¶ 3; see also Kearns Attestation ¶¶ 4-5; Spangler Affidavit; Goodrich Attestation ¶¶4-7. Given the credible evidence submitted by the County and the plain language of Section 708(b)(6)(iii), the OOR finds that the County has met its burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the disclosure of the identities of law enforcement officers who are performing, will be performing or were performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities would permit a third party to identify these officers, thereby jeopardizing the personal safety of these individuals. As a result, the names of these officers are exempt from disclosure and we conclude the names of the law enforcement officers were properly redacted under Sections 708(b)(6)(iii) and 708(b)(1).

2. The OOR declines to make a finding of bad faith

The Requester presents a claim concerning the County's failure to provide responsive records with fewer redactions. While the OOR may make findings of bad faith, only the courts have the authority to impose sanctions on agencies. See generally 65 P.S. § 67.1304(a). Under the RTKL, a finding of bad faith is appropriate where an agency refuses to comply with its statutory duties under the RTKL. Uniontown Newspapers, Inc. v. Pa. Dep't of Corr., 243 A.3d 19, 28-29 (Pa. 2020); California Univ. of Pa. v. Bradshaw, 210 A.3d 1134 (Pa. Commw. Unpub. 2021), appeal denied 2019 PA LEXIS (Pa. 2019); Office of the Dist. Atty. of Phila. v. Bagwell, 155 A.3d 1119 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017).

In the instant matter, we respectfully decline to make a finding of bad faith. The County submitted a timely response to the Request, provided a detailed final response and fully participated on appeal, and a finding of bad faith is typically reserved only for an egregious or blatant violation of the RTKL.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the appeal is denied, and the County is not required to take any further action. This Final Determination is binding on all parties. Within thirty days of the mailing date of this Final Determination, any party may appeal to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas. 65 P.S. § 67.1301(a). All parties must be served with notice of the appeal. The OOR also shall be served notice and have an opportunity to respond as per Section 1303 of the RTKL; however, as the quasi-judicial tribunal adjudicating this matter, the OOR is not a proper party to any appeal and should not be named as a party.[9] 65 P.S. § 67.1303. CHARLIE WOLFSON and PUBLICSOURCE Petitioners,	:
v.	:	Docket No: _____
ALLEGHENY COUNTY, Respondent.	:

NOTICE OF APPEAL AND PETITION FOR REVIEW

PublicSource, a nonprofit news organization serving the Pittsburgh region, along with a PublicSource reporter, Charlie Wolfson, petition for review of the final determination of the Office of Open Records ("OOR") docketed at OOR Docket No: AP 2025-0246 and in support of their petition assert:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this statutory appeal pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 933(a)(3) and 65 P.S. § 67.1302(a).

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 65 P.S. § 67.1302(a).

PARTIES

3. Petitioners are "requesters" as defined by to the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL"), 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 et seq., with offices at 1936 Fifth Ave., Pittsburgh PA 15219.

4. Respondent Allegheny County ("Respondent") is an "agency" as defined by the RTKL with offices at 445 Fort Pitt Blvd., 3rd Floor, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

DETERMINATION TO BE REVIEWED

5. The OOR, which has its office at 333 Market Street, 16th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17101-2234, is a governmental unit established to receive and determine appeals of agency RTKL decisions pursuant to Sections 1101 and 1310 of the RTKL.

6. The March 3, 2025 OOR Final Determination to be reviewed is attached as Exhibit A.

STANDARD AND SCOPE OF REVIEW

7. OOR decisions are not afforded any deference – rather, courts "independently review" and "conduct full de novo reviews of appeals from decisions made by RTKL appeals officers…." See Bowling v. Office of Open Records, 75 A.3d 453, 474-53 (Pa. 2013).

BACKGROUND

8. On January 10, 2025, Petitioners filed a RTKL request ("Request") seeking:

> …[I]nformation for all individuals employed by [the County] during 2024, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.
> Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.
>
> This [R]equest includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.
>

Exhibit A, OOR Final Determination, at 1.

9. On January 24, 2025, after sending an extension notice pursuant to 65 P.S. § 67.902(b), Respondent partially denied the Request. Respondent provided a publicly available website link and asserted that the responsive material contained redacted materials that were not subject to disclosure due to the personal security of its employees, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii), the likelihood of jeopardizing or threatening public safety, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(2), revealing the names of law enforcement officers performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), and revealing the enrollment in a health care program, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(5). Id. at 2.

10. On January 30, 2025, Petitioners filed an appeal to the OOR. Id.

11. The OOR invited both parties to supplement the record and directed the County to notify any third parties of their ability to participate in the appeal. Id.

12. On February 18, 2025, Petitioners submitted a position statement, stating that Respondent redacted far more law enforcement officers than those currently involved in undercover activity. Petitioners noted that more than three quarters of all employees in the County Sheriff's Department and two thirds of all employee names in the County Police Department were redacted. Moreover, Petitioners asserted that Respondent acted in bad faith by failing to provide the names of public employees. Id.

13. On February 20, 2025, Respondent submitted a position statement, which reiterated its grounds for partially denying the Request. Respondent claimed that it was not required to provide a list of employees in which only the employees currently working undercover are redacted because the list could be requested a number of times, allowing a requester to determine the employees that move in and out of an undercover capacity. Id. at 3.

14. In support of its position, Respondent submitted three attestations authored by Nichole L. Nagle, the Employee Relations Manager for the County Department of Human Resources; Christopher Kearns, Superintendent of the County Police Department; and John P. Goodrich, Esq., the Solicitor for the County Sheriff. Id.

15. Further, Respondent submitted an affidavit authored by Rebecca D. Spangler, Esq., the First Assistant District Attorney and Agency Open Records Officer for the County District Attorney's Office. Id.

16. On March 3, 2025, the OOR issued and mailed its Final Determination, denying Petitioners' Appeal and holding that Respondent was not required to take any further action. Id. at 12.

THE OOR ERRED IN HOLDING THAT RESPONDENT APPROPRIATELY REDACTED NAMES OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

17. Petitioners argue that Respondent may only redact the names of law enforcement officers that are actively "involved in undercover activity" because 65 P.S. § 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL states:

> An agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record.

18. The OOR erred in deciding that because 65 P.S. § 708(b)(6)(iii) does not specifically detail whether the term "performing" should be read in its present, past, or future tense, Respondent may redact a law enforcement officer's name who is either (1) performing, (2) was performing, or (3) will be performing undercover or covert activities.

19. While the OOR interpreted legislative intent by detailing the rules of grammar and the word "performing's" common and approved usage, it ignored that "the best indication of legislative intent is the plain language of a statute. Kistler v. State Ethics Com'n, 610 Pa. 516, 522 (Pa. 2011).

20. It is clear that the legislature only intended this RTKL exception to apply to individuals actively performing undercover or covert law enforcement activity. If the legislature intended this statute to be read more broadly and apply to law enforcement officers who at any time performed or will be performing undercover or covert law enforcement activity, this would have been specified in the statute.

21. While Respondent further claims, and the OOR agreed, that the redactions are appropriate, pursuant to the RTKL's personal security exception, 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii), because multiple requests for the same information at different times would positively identify these undercover or covert law enforcement officers or allow the officers to be identified upon comparison of the lists, Respondent has not demonstrated a "reasonable likelihood" of "substantial and demonstrable risk" to an individual's security. See Del. County v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2012); see also Posey v. Dep't of Corr., 329 A.3d 864, 872-73 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2025) (holding that the names of prison employees could not be withheld pursuant to the security-related exceptions under the RTKL because "an agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture."); California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2018) ("An agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture to establish the security-related exceptions under the Right-to-Know Law.") (citation omitted)).

22. Respondent has redacted the majority of names of all employees in the County Sheriff's Department and County Police Department and has only provided conclusory assertions that the disclosure of the names of law enforcement officers who are not actively performing, or may never actually perform, undercover or covert law enforcement activities would jeopardize the personal safety of these individuals. See Office of the Governor v. Scolforo, 65 A.3d 1095, 1103 (Pa Commw. Ct. 2013) ("[A] generic determination or conclusory statements are not sufficient to justify the exemption of public records"); see also Pa. Dep't of Educ. v. Bagwell, 131 A.3d, 638 659 (Pa Commw. Ct. 2023) ("Affidavits that are conclusory or merely parrot the exemption do not suffice") (citation omitted)).

23. Respondent lastly argues that the redactions of public officials' names was proper pursuant to an exception to the RTKL that prevents the disclosure of information revealing the enrollment in a health care program. See 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(5). However, the OOR did not cite this exception in their legal analysis, and Respondent did not provide any substantive information to justify this exception being applied. See Scolforo, 65 A.3d at 1103.

24. Such overbroad redactions of basic information involving public officials hinders the underlying purpose of the RTKL, which its "to promote access to official government information in order to prohibit secrets, scrutinize the actions of public officials and make public officials accountable for their actions." Bowling v. Office of Open Records, 990 A.2d 813, 824 (Pa. Commw. 2010) (en banc), petition for allowance of appeal granted in part, 15 A.3d 427 (Pa. 2011).

25. The public interest in disclosing the names of public officials not actively involved in undercover or covert law enforcement activity far outweighs any interest in keeping such information secret.

THE OOR ERRED IN DECLINING TO MAKE A FINDING THAT RESPODNENT ACTED IN BAD FAITH

26. The OOR noted that pursuant to the RTKL, a finding of bad faith is appropriate when an agency refuses to comply with its statutory duties under the RTKL. See Exhibit A, at 12 (citing Uniontown Newspapers, Inc. v. Pa. Dep't of Corr., 243 A.3d 19, 28-29 (Pa. 2020) ("Uniontown II"); California Univ. of Pa. v. Bradshaw, 210 A.3d 1134 (Pa. Commw. Unpub. 2021), appeal denied 2019 PA LEXIS (Pa. 2019); Office of the Dist. Atty. of Phila. v. Bagwell, 155 A.3d 1119 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017)). "The lack of good faith compliance with the RTKL and an abnegation of mandatory duties under its provisions rise to the level of bad faith." Uniontown Newspapers, Inc. v. Pa. Dep't of Corr., 185 A.3d 1161, 1170 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2018) ("Uniontown I").

27. Respondent is aware of the names of public officials not actively performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities that can be disclosed to Petitioners. However, rather than disclose these names, Respondent has "forced [Petitioners] to expend time and resources" to continue to assert their rightful access to the names of these individuals, and therefore Respondent's "persistent denial of access constitutes bad faith." See id., at 1174.

28. Because the information Petitioners seek is related to public officials, and Respondent has not provided any evidence that it acted in good faith to fulfill its mandatory duty to only redact the names of individuals actively involved in undercover or covert law enforcement activities, the OOR erred in declining to find that Respondent acted in bad faith.

STATEMENT OF THE RELIEF SOUGHT

WHEREFORE, Petitioners, PublicSource and Charlie Wolfson, respectfully request that this Honorable Court:

(a) Reverse the OOR determination of March 3, 2025 and order the release of the requested records or

(b) In the alternative, allow Requesters to supplement the record before this Honorable Court, or

(c) In the alternative, remand the matter back to the OOR for a full evidentiary hearing pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 1542, including testimony and argument.

CIVIL DIVISION

No. SA 25-000170

ALLEGHENY COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY STEPHEN A. ZAPPALA, JR. AND ALLEGHENY COUNTY SHERIFF KEVIN M. KRAUS' UNCONTESTED JOINT PETITION TO INTERVENE

AND NOW, come proposed intervenors, Allegheny County District Attorney Stephen A. Zappala, Jr. ("DA"), by and through his undersigned counsel, Joseph G. Heminger and Brucker & Porter, and Allegheny County Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus ("Sheriff"), by and through his undersigned counsel, John P. Goodrich (the DA and Sheriff shall collectively be referred to as the "Proposed Intervenors") stating the following in support of this Uncontested Joint Petition for Intervention:

1. On March 31, 2025, Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource ("Appellant") filed with this Court an appeal ("Appeal") of a March 3, 2025 Final Determination issued by the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records ("OOR Final Determination"), pursuant to § 1302 of the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL").

2. The Appeal arises from Appellant's RTKL Request submitted to Allegheny County, on January 10, 2025, stating:

> I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2024, in the form of a digital file as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.
> Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.

This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

3. On January 24, 2025, Allegheny County issued a Final Response to Appellant's RTKL Request granting it in part and denying it in part.

4. The Appeal challenges Allegheny County's decision, as more particularly set forth in the County's RTKL Response, to redact the names of the various types of law enforcement officers employed by Allegheny County who are either currently performing undercover work, or who are subject to being assigned to move in and out of performing undercover work, pursuant to § 708(b)(6)(iii) of the RTKL exempting from disclosure "[t]he names of individuals performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities," RTKL § 708(b)(1)(ii) exempting from disclosure information "reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual," and RTKL § 708(b)(2) exempting from disclosure information the disclosure of which "would be reasonably likely to jeopardize or threaten public safety or preparedness or public protection activities.

5. The names of law enforcement officers redacted in the County's RTKL Response include the approximately 20 detectives working in the DA's Investigations Unit ("DA's Detectives"), all of whom were assigned, are assigned and/or are subject to being assigned to work undercover in connection with matters including, but not necessarily limited to: the DA's Narcotics Enforcement Team, Gun Violence Task Force, Nuisance Property and Bar Task Force, and/or complex fraud and theft investigations.

6. The names of law enforcement officers redacted in the County's RTKL Response also include the approximately 156 Deputy Sheriffs who were assigned, are assigned and/or are subject to being assigned to work undercover in connection with various task forces, including, but not limited to: the FBI's Greater Pittsburgh Safe Streets Task Force, Opioid Task Force, and Violent Crimes Task Force, the United States Marshals Service's Western Pennsylvania Fugitive Task Force, the ATF's National Explosives Task Force, the DEA's Drug Trafficking Tasx Force and the DA's task forces listed in paragraph 5 above.

7. The DA's Detectives and the Deputy Sheriffs are unique in that, although they are considered Allegheny County employees for purposes of pay, benefits and other employment matters, the DA Detectives are hired by, work solely for and otherwise operate under the direction and control of the independently elected DA, and the Deputy Sheriffs similarly are hired by, work exclusively for and otherwise operate under the direction and control of the independently elected Sheriff.

8. Avoiding having an undercover DA Detective or Deputy Sheriff identified as a law enforcement officer by the target(s) of an undercover and/or covert operation is a serious matter in all cases and a matter of life and death in some cases, and, therefore, the proceedings in this appeal will necessarily directly affect the Proposed Intervenors, and may negatively and substantially impact the Proposed Intervenors in their ability to carry out their law enforcement undercover and covert law enforcement operations if they are not permitted to participate in these proceedings and provide argument and evidence relevant to these concerns.

9. Proposed Intervenors' pressing interest in this Appeal require intervention as additional appellees so that the Proposed Intervenors can present evidence and legal argument that will be helpful to the Court concerning the undercover and covert operations that the DA's

Detectives and Deputy Sheriffs engage in, which are similar to and separate, apart and unique from the undercover and covert operations engaged in by the Allegheny County Police as well as the other Allegheny County law enforcement officers that will be impacted by this Court's decision in this matter.

10. Pa.R.C.P. 2327(2) allows a person not named as a party in an action to seek leave to intervene by filing a petition with the court where such person could have joined or been joined as an original party in the action, and Pa.R.C.P. 2327(4) allows for the seeking of leave to intervene where a determination in the action may affect any legally enforceable interest of such person.

11. "[A] grant of intervention is mandatory where the intervenor satisfies one of the four bases set forth in Rule No. 2327 unless there exists a basis for refusal under Rule N0. 2329." Allegheny Reprod. Health Ctr. V. Pa. Dep't of Hum. Servs., 225 A.3d 902, 908 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2020).

12. Pa.R.C.P. 2329 only allows a petition for intervention to be denied where: (a) the petitioner's claim or defense "is not in subordination to and in recognition of the propriety of the action"; (b) the petitioner's interest is already adequately represented; or (c) "the petitioner has unduly delayed in making application for intervention or the intervention will unduly delay, embarrass or prejudice the trial or the adjudication of the rights of the parties." None of these exceptions apply in this case.

13. Petitions to intervene appear to be commonly granted by Pennsylvania Courts of Common Pleas in RTKL appeals of OOR decisions presumably in order to facilitate full and comprehensive presentation of all relevant issues and evidence to aid the court in deciding the matter. See, e.g. Honey v. Lycoming Cnty. Offs. Of Voter Servs., 312 A.3d 942, 946 (Pa.

CHARLIE WOLFSON and PUBLICSOURCE Petitioners,	:
v.	:	Docket No: SA-25-000170
ALLEGHENY COUNTY, Respondent.	:

JOINT STIPULATION OF FACTS

Petitioners Charlie Wolfson ("Wolfson") and PublicSource and Respondent Allegheny County ("the County") do hereby stipulate and agree that the following facts are undisputed for the purpose of a hearing on the merits in the above-captioned case.

1. On January 4, 2024, Wolfson submitted a Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL") request to the County seeking a digital file for salary and demographic information for all individuals employed by the County during the calendar year 2023.

2. On January 11, 2024, in response to this RTKL request, the County sent Wolfson a letter directing him to information that was publicly available on the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center ("WPRDC") website.[1]

3. On January 16, 2024, Wolfson filed an appeal to the Office of Open Records ("OOR") challenging the County's January 11, 2024, response and stating grounds for disclosure. See OOR Dkt. No. AP 2024-0196.

4. On February 26, 2024, the OOR issued its Final Determination which required the County to conduct a supplemental review of the 396 County employee names that were redacted based on 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(C)(iii) to ensure only exempt names had been redacted, attached as Exhibit A. The authenticity of the copy of this February 26, 2024, Final Determination attached as Exhibit A is not disputed.

5. Pursuant to the Final Determination, the County was also ordered to provide Wolfson with an affidavit or attestation describing the aforementioned supplemental review process and any supporting redactions. Ex. A at 6.

6. On March 11, 2024, the County provided Wolfson an affidavit, dated March 8, 2024, signed by Nichole Nagle ("Nagle"), an employee relations manager for the County Department of Human Resources, along with a revised spreadsheet containing salary and demographic information for County employees during the calendar year 2023, attached as Exhibit B (affidavit) and Exhibit C (revised spreadsheet). The authenticity of the copies of this affidavit attached as Exhibit B and revised spreadsheet attached as Exhibit C is not disputed.

7. In her affidavit, Nagle stated that she "was made aware of the Office of Open Records' Final Determination in case 2024-0196" and that she subsequently "checked with the

[1] https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries.

Office of the District Attorney, the County Police Department, and the County Sheriff's Office to get an updated list of individuals who are currently performing undercover work." Ex. B at 1.

8. Nagle further provided that after receiving responses from the Office of the District Attorney, the County Police Department, and the County Sheriff's Office, she "made the necessary redactions to remove the names of individuals who are currently undercover." Id. at 2.

9. The resulting spreadsheet, titled "Revised County salaries January 2024_Redacted.csv" contained redactions for the names of 87 County employees who as of March 2024 were currently working undercover and two County employees who were not working undercover but required redactions for other reasons. AFFIDAVIT OF NICHOLE NAGLE

I, Nichole L. Nagle, hereby declare under the penalty of perjury, pursuant to 18 Pa. C. S. A. § 4904, that the following statements are true and correct based upon my personal knowledge, information, and belief:

1. My name is Nichole L. Nagle. I am the Employee Relations Manager for the Allegheny County Department of Human Resources.

2. The County publishes salary and demographic information online at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries.

3. Before the data is published, I review it to ensure that names of undercover law enforcement officers are redacted. My typical practice is to redact the names of every individual whose job title indicates that they might be assigned to work undercover. Two examples are detectives who work for the Office of the District Attorney and sergeants with the Allegheny County Police Department.

4. Two individuals working at Kane Regional Centers are also redacted. One of them is in a modified duty position, and revealing their name would disclose information about an individual's medical, psychiatric, or psychological history or disability status, which is exempt from the Right to Know Law. The County redacts the name of the other individual at Kane because revealing their name would endanger their personal security.

5. Recently I was made aware of the Office of Open Records' Final Determination in case 2024-0196. I was told that the requester, Charlie Wolfson, argued that the number of redacted names seemed too high.

6. In response to the Final Determination, I checked with the Office of the District Attorney, the County Police Department, and the County Sheriff's Office to get an updated list of individuals who are currently performing undercover work.

8. I received responses from all three departments and made the necessary redactions to remove the names of individuals who currently are undercover. The resulting spreadsheet is titled "Revised County salaries January 2024_Redacted.csv."

Re: RTKL Request – Initial Response #19200

Dear Mr. Wolfson:

This is in response to your attached request for records made pursuant the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law (RTKL), which this office received on January 10, 2025.

In your request you state:

I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2024, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.

Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.

This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

This is a different dataset than is posted on WPRDC, because the WPRDC dataset has additional redactions among law enforcement officers

Please be advised that the County is invoking its right under Section 902 of the RTKL for an extension of time to complete a review of your request and to issue a final response for the following reason:

Section 902 (a) (3) – A timely response to the request for access cannot be accomplished due to bona fide and specified staffing limitations. Limited staff requires the need for additional time.

By law, the Allegheny County Open Records Office has thirty days to issue a final response regarding this request. A response is expected to be provided within thirty days of the date of this letter.

Sincerely,

Jessica Garofolo, Director
County of Allegheny Open Records Officer

Re: RTKL Request – Final Response #19200

Dear Mr. Wolfson:

This is in response to your attached request for records made pursuant the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law (RTKL). This office received your request on January 10, 2025 and notified you on January 16, 2025 that an extension of time to respond to your request was necessary due to bona fide staffing limitations.

In your request you state:

I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2024, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.

Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.

This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

This is a different dataset than is posted on WPRDC, because the WPRDC dataset has additional redactions among law enforcement officers

Your request is granted in part and denied in part for the reasons set forth below.

Section 704 (b) (1) of the RTKL states in pertinent part, "an agency may respond to a request by notifying the requester that the record is available through publicly accessible electronic means." The information you requested is available on the publicly available website, namely, the website of the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center (WPRDC). Below is a link to the WPRDC website where you can find this information.

https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries

However, portions of the record required redactions in order not to disclose:

- Information that would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual, exempt from disclosure under Section 708 (b) (1) (ii) of the RTKL.

- Information that if disclosed, would be reasonably likely to jeopardize or threaten public safety or preparedness or public protection activity, exempt from disclosure under Section 708 (b) (2) of the RTKL.

- The names of individuals performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities, exempt from disclosure under Section 708 (b) (6) (iii) of the RTKL.

- Information that would disclose an individual enrollment in a health care program, exempt from disclosure under Section 708 (5) of the RTKL.

Therefore, as to the information redacted from this record, your request is respectfully denied.

This Office is aware of your note specifying that you have successfully appealed decisions in the past and received records with fewer redacted names. Upon consultation with the Allegheny County Police Department, we must respectfully decline your request for a list with fewer redacted names. Repeated release of the County's employee list with redactions of only the officers who are currently performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities at the time the list is provided would result in a risk to the personal security of officers who may have performed those functions in the past, but may not be doing so currently.

Additionally, information pertaining to Court of Common Pleas employees has not been included in the record provided because the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas ("the Courts") is a separate and independent branch of government not subject to the County's RTKL policy and practices. You should direct your request for this information to the Courts' RTKL Officer at the address listed below:

Attn: Rule 509 Administrator
Court Administration
300 Frick Building - 437 Grant Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15219
412.350.5410 telephone
412.350.3930 fax
e-mail: Rule509.Administrator@alleghenycourts.us

Pursuant to Section 1101 of the RTKL, a party denied access to a requested record may file a written appeal of the denial with the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records ("OOR") within fifteen (15) business days of the mailing date of the local agency's response. The OOR's address is:

Pennsylvania Office of Open Records
333 Market Street - 16th Floor
Harrisburg, PA 17126-0333

Sincerely,

Jessica Garofolo, Director
County of Allegheny Open Records Officer

CHARLIE WOLFSON and PUBLIC SOURCE,
Petitioners,

vs.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY and the
OFFICE,

Respondents.

PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Right to Know Law ("RTKL") provides that: "[a]n agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. §67.708(b)(6)(iii).

2. The names of individuals performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity can also be redacted from financial records, which generally are more accessible than non-financial records. 65 P.S. §67.708(c).

3. The RTKL exempts from disclosure: "[a] record, the disclosure of which: (i) would result in the loss of Federal or State funds by an agency or the Commonwealth; or (ii) would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual." 65 P.S. §67.708(b)(1).

4. The plain language of the RTKL indicates that the General Assembly did not intend for Section 708(b)(6)(iii) to only apply to individuals currently performing undercover or covert activity at the time that a RTKL request is made. This strict interpretation is contradicted by Section 708(b)(1)(ii), which emphasizes the importance of protecting information that could cause physical harm to an individual.

5. Our Commonwealth Court has recognized that "the RTKL's security-related exemptions are of particular concern in prison and police settings." Borough of Pottstown v. Suber-Aponte, 202 A.3d 173, 183 (Pa.Cmwlth. 2019)(citing Carey v. Pa. Dept. of Corr., 61 A.3d 367 (Pa.Cmwlth. 2013).

6. Our Commonwealth Court also held that an affidavit of a police officer based on his experience was sufficient to demonstrate that the personal security exemption applied to a police policy regarding the use of confidential informants, and that the affidavit "was the result of this experience, not mere speculation or conjecture." Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa.Cmwlth. 2013).

7. The Office of Open Records' Final Determination in this case was correct.

8. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning's testimony was sufficient to meet the County's burden of proof that the redactions to the lists it provided to Mr. Wolfson in September 2025 and at trial via Exhibit F were proper under the RTKL.

PROPPOSED STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. On January 10, 2025, Charlie Wolfson submitted a request to Allegheny County for records pursuant to the Right to Know Law ("RTKL"). (Exhibit A.) The request stated:

> I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2024, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file.
> Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position…date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.
>
> This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.
> This is a different dataset than is posted on WPRDC, because the WPRDC dataset has additional redactions among law enforcement officers

2. On January 16, 2025, the County sent Mr. Wolfson a letter stating that the County was invoking its right under Section 902 of the RTKL for additional time to review his request. (Exhibit B.)

3. On January 24, 2025, The County sent Mr. Wolfson a letter explaining that the information he sought was available publicly on the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center ("WPRDC") website and provided him with a link. The letter explained that the information on the website was redacted based on several exemptions to the RTKL, and that the County would not provide him with a list containing fewer redactions because this would jeopardize the identities of employees who perform undercover or covert law enforcement activities. (Exhibit C.)

4. Mr. Wolfson filed an appeal to the Office of Open Records ("OOR") on January 30, 2025. (Exhibit D.)

5. The County submitted a brief to the OOR arguing that the data should be redacted to protect the identities of individuals performing covert law enforcement activities and because of the personal security exemption to the RTKL. (OOR Certified Record, Ex. 7.)

6. The County's brief to the OOR also explained that, in the past, the County had provided Mr. Wolfson with a list of employees which was only redacted to protect the identities of employees who were currently working undercover at the time the list was provided, but that "upon further consideration of the issues in this case, the County has determined that the RTKL does not require it to provide Mr. Wolfson, or any requester, with a list of employees in which only the employees currently working undercover are redacted." (Id. at 3.)

7. In support of its arguments, the County submitted four affidavits. One was from John P. Goodrich, the solicitor for the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office. Mr. Goodrich averred that the redactions to the sheriff's employees in the WPRDC dataset are necessary "because publicizing these names would result in substantial risk to the personal security of these officers." (Id. at Exhibit D.)

8. On March 3, 2025, the OOR issued its Final Determination in Mr. Wolfson's appeal. The OOR found that "the County has provided evidence that undercover and covert activity assignments are not static" and that officers can transfer in and out of units where they are performing covert functions. (Exhibit E at 11.)

9. The OOR ruled that "the County has met its burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the disclosure of the identities of law enforcement officers who are performing, will be performing or were performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities would permit a third party to identify these officers, thereby jeopardizing the personal safety of these individuals." (Id.)

10. The OOR did not order the County to provide any additional unredacted names to Mr. Wolfson. (Id.)

11. Mr. Wolfson filed a statutory appeal with this Honorable Court on March 31, 2025.

12. After productive settlement discussions, Mr. Wolfson discontinued his claims regarding the County's redactions to the names of employees of the Office of the District Attorney and the County Police Department.

13. In September 2025, the Sheriff's Office provided Mr. Wolfson with an updated record in response to the RTKL request at issue in this appeal. It showed that as of the end of 2024 the Sheriff's Office had 199 employees. The names of 92 of those employees were redacted. (Exhibit P1.)

14. On December 3, 2025, a trial was held before the Honorable Judge Regan. One witness testified on the County's behalf – Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning.

15. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning has been working with the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office since 1999. In his current position, he oversees the operations of the Sheriff's Office. (12/3/25 Tr. at 30.)

16. The Sheriff's Office has 208 employees. It is "slated" to have 177 deputy sheriffs, but currently only has 161-165 deputy sheriffs. (See id. at 30-31.)

17. Allegheny County deputy sheriffs are "fully fledged police officers." The Sheriff's Office includes three fugitive units. The Sheriff's Office works with federal task forces, including with the DEA and FBI. The Office investigates sex travelers, sex traffickers, counterfeit merchandise, and drug and gun crimes. (See id. at 32-35.)

18. The Sheriff's Office has 44 or 45 employees who are performing undercover or covert activities on a regular basis. (See id. at 35-36.)

19. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning described undercover work as "anything from assuming another identity" to "those that are in plainclothes for an element of surprise which would also be covert or sitting on surveillance where they could be – some people could walk by and identify them but they're not in uniform." (Id. at 39-40.)

20. When the Sheriff's Office needs more people to perform undercover or covert activities, it draws from its pool of deputy sheriffs who work "bank hours" in courthouses. (See id. at 38.)

21. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning testified that the frequency that the Sheriff's Office uses additional deputies to perform undercover or covert work "depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well." (Id. at 38-39.)

22. Exhibit F is a redacted list of the Sheriff's Office's 208 employees. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning and Attorney Goodrich redacted the list in preparation for trial.

23. The 89 names that are redacted from Exhibit F are those of deputy sheriffs who are assigned to a unit that performs undercover work, have been in one of those units in the past year, or are in the pool of deputy sheriffs who might be called upon to perform undercover work. (See id. at 40.)

24. Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning explained that due to the nature of its work, the Sheriff's Office cannot predict with absolute specificity which deputy sheriffs will be called upon to perform covert or undercover activities within a specific time frame. (See id. at 42-44, 50.)

25. Redacting the names of the deputy sheriffs on Exhibit F is necessary because of the types of investigations in which they may be involved. According to Chief Deputy Sheriff

Manning, exposing the identity of an officer, otherwise known as "doxxing," and threatening officers is "a frequent concern in law enforcement for their families, for the deputies themselves to be identified by some of these folks that they are investigating, especially a lot of these federal investigations that we're involved in." (Id. at 51.)

CHARLIE WOLFSON and PUBLICSOURCE Petitioners, v. ALLEGHENY COUNTY and ALLEGHENY COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE Respondents.	: : : : : : : : : :	Docket No: SA-25-000170

PETITIONERS' PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Petitioners Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource (collectively, the "Petitioners") respectfully submit the following Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law regarding their petition for review of the March 3, 2025 Pennsylvania Office of Open Records ("OOR") Final Determination in Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource v. Allegheny County, OOR Dkt. AP 2025-0246, denying Petitioners' appeal from Respondent Allegheny County's partial denials of Petitioners' public records requests pursuant to Sections 708(b)(1)(ii) and 708(b)(6)(iii) of the Right-to-Know Law (the "RTKL").

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner PublicSource is a nonprofit news organization serving the Pittsburgh region, and Petitioner Charlie Wolfson ("Wolfson") is a reporter for PublicSource.

2. Respondents are Allegheny County (the "County") and the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office (the "Sheriff's Office," and collectively with the County, the "Respondents").

3. On January 4, 2024, Wolfson submitted a RTKL request (the "2024 Request") to the County seeking a digital file containing names, salary and basic demographic information for all individuals employed by the County during the calendar year 2023. Joint Stipulation of Facts (Dkt. No. 14) ¶ 1.

4. On January 11, 2024, the County responded to Wolfson's 2024 Request by directing him to information that was publicly available on a government website, id. ¶ 2, which included redactions for the names of more than three quarters of all Sheriff's Office employees, see id., Ex. A at 2 & n.1 (citing Allegheny County Employee Salaries, W. Pa. Reg'l Data Ctr., https://perma.cc/A2ZJ-FRQZ (dataset for "December 2023 Employee Salaries," filtering for "Department" and "Name")).

5. On January 16, 2024, Wolfson filed an appeal with the OOR challenging the County's response. Id. ¶ 3. The County did not claim any specific exemption that would permit the withholding or redaction of records. Id., Ex. A at 5.

6. On February 26, 2024, the OOR issued a Final Determination on Wolfson's appeal, which required the County to perform a supplemental review of the redacted names and provide Wolfson with an attestation describing the supplemental review process and any resulting redactions, id. ¶¶ 4–5, because "the County ha[d] not proven that all redacted law enforcement officer names [were] exempt pursuant to Section 708(b)(6)[(iii)]," id., Ex. A at 6.

7. On March 11, 2024, the County provided Wolfson with an affidavit signed by an employee relations manager for the County Department of Human Resources, along with a revised spreadsheet containing salary and demographic information for County employees during the calendar year 2023 (the "2024 Revised Response"). Id. ¶ 6. The affidavit stated that the County had redacted information for "individuals who are currently performing undercover work." Id. ¶ 7. Approximately 17% of the Sheriff's Office's employee names listed in the spreadsheet remained redacted. See id., Ex. C.

8. On January 10, 2025, Petitioners filed a similar RTKL Request (the "2025 Request"), again seeking a digital file containing names, salary and demographic information for all individuals employed by the County during the calendar year 2024. Pet'rs' Notice of Appeal (Dkt. No. 1) ¶ 8.

9. On January 24, 2025, the County partially denied the 2025 Request. Id. ¶ 9. The County directed Wolfson to information on a publicly available website and asserted, in part, that employee names were redacted pursuant to 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii), which exempts records which "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual," and 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), which provides that "[a]n agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." Id.

10. Unlike the records provided with the 2024 Revised Response, the County redacted more than three quarters of the Sheriff's Office's employee names from the publicly available website. See id. ¶ 12 (citing Allegheny County Employee Salaries, W. Pa. Reg'l Data Ctr., https://perma.cc/P5KT-G66Q (dataset for "December 2024 Employee Salaries," filtering for "Department" and "Name")).[1]

11. On January 30, 2025, Petitioners filed an appeal with the OOR challenging the County's partial denial of the 2025 Request. Id. ¶ 10.

12. On March 3, 2025, the OOR issued its Final Determination, which denied Petitioners' appeal of the County's partial denial of the 2025 Request. Id. ¶ 16. The OOR concluded that it was permissible for the County to redact the names of law enforcement officers who are performing, will be performing, or were performing undercover or covert law enforcement activities. OOR Certified Record (Dkt. No. 5), Final Determination at 11.

13. On March 31, 2025, Petitioners filed a Notice of Appeal and Petition for Review of the OOR's Final Determination with this Court. Dkt. No. 1.

14. On May 9, 2025, the Sheriff's Office and District Attorney's Office filed an uncontested joint petition to intervene, Dkt. No. 7, which the Court granted on October 6, 2025, Dkt. No. 12.

15. On September 18, 2025, the County provided Petitioners with revised responses to the 2025 Request (the "2025 Revised Response"), which maintained redactions to the names of approximately 47% of the Sheriff's Office's employees. See Pet'rs Ex. P1 (Dkt. No. 19).

16. On November 20, 2025, the District Attorney's Office filed a Stipulation of Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent Allegheny County District Attorney's Office, with the consent of Petitioners, the County, and the Sheriff's Office, which attached an attestation from the District Attorney's Chief of Detectives providing that all 24 of the District Attorney's detectives whose names remained redacted would be assigned to work in undercover surveillance roles in the year following Petitioners' 2025 Request. Dkt. No. 16 at 2–3.

[1] Two thirds of all employee names in the Allegheny County Police Department (the "Police Department") were redacted, along with the names of over twenty detectives working for the Allegheny County District Attorney's Office (the "District Attorney's Office). See id.; OOR Certified Record (Dkt. No. 5), Final Determination at 2 n.4.

17. On December 2, 2025, the County filed a Motion for Leave of Court for Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent Allegheny County Police Department, with the consent of Petitioners, stating:

> Petitioners will submit an annual RTKL Request ("Annual RTKL Request"), and the County, for the next five (5) years, may only redact the names of its Police Department law enforcement officers who (i) performed undercover or covert law enforcement activity at any point during the calendar year prior to the Annual RTKL Request, (ii) currently are performing undercover or covert law enforcement activity as of the date of the Annual RTKL Request, (iii) and/or will be performing undercover or covert law enforcement activity at any point for a period of 12 months after the date of the Annual RTKL Request.

Dkt. No. 17, Attach. (Stipulated Discontinuance) at 3.

18. On the same day, the Court granted the County's Motion for Leave of Court for Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent Allegheny County Police Department. Dkt. No. 18.

19. On December 3, 2025, the Court held a non-jury trial to address Petitioners' RTKL appeal.

20. During the non-jury trial, the Sheriff's Office called Chief Deputy Richard Manning ("Chief Manning") to testify about the redacted Sheriff's Office's employee names in the 2025 Revised Response.

21. During the non-jury trial, counsel for the Sheriff's Office entered as evidence an updated spreadsheet containing the names of the Sheriff's Office's employees. See Dkt. No. 20, Ex. F ("Sheriff's Office's Redacted List"). In this version of the spreadsheet, approximately 43% of the names of Sheriff's Office employees remain redacted. Trial Transcript ("Trial Tr.") at 40:23–41:6.

22. Counsel for the Sheriff's Office also provided the Court with a version of Ex. F without any redactions for in-camera review ("Sheriff's Office's Unredacted List").

23. According to Chief Manning's testimony, there is a "static number of definitive detectives doing undercover or plainclothes work" at any given time, Trial Tr. at 34:6–8; these are the law enforcement officers who are doing "[undercover or covert] activities on a regular basis," id. at 36:25–37:3; and this "static number . . . is about half of the total number [of redacted law enforcement officers]," id. at 35:5–6. Chief Manning estimated the "static number" comprised 44–45 names. Id. at 36:20–37:3.

24. In addition to that "static number," the Sheriff's Office has redacted the names of another 44–45 individuals from the Sherriff's Office's Redacted List. These additional redactions comprise individuals who are merely "believe[d]" to be going undercover, id. at 22:5–6, or are "most likely [to] go" undercover, id. at 24:1.

25. Chief Manning provided a handful of examples of "undercover covert operations" that the Sheriff's Office law enforcement officers may perform, including forms of electronic surveillance, such as Title III wire monitoring and matters involving child pornography and sex trafficking, and drone surveillance. Id. at 32:15–35:20.

26. If a Sheriff's Office employee was assigned or could potentially be assigned to such surveillance operations intended "to make someone believe that [a law enforcement officer is] not a police officer," that employee's name was redacted in the Sheriff's Office's Redacted List. Id. at 39:24–40:22.

27. Chief Manning testified that the personal security risk raised by disclosing the identities of Sheriff's Office law enforcement officers involved, or potentially involved, with such undercover operations centers around the fact that if a suspect becomes aware of a law enforcement officer's true identity, they would be able to target the officer. Id. at 60:17–21.

28. At the same time, activities associated with some undercover operations do not present a significant risk that an undercover officer's identity would be revealed. For instance, certain undercover operations—such as reviewing wire audio or video footage, or operating a surveillance drone—only require the remote gathering of evidence, id. at 63:7–10; do not necessitate face-to-face interactions with suspects, id. at 64:24–65:2, 67:9–13; and do not lead to potentially dangerous sting operations, id. at 66:5–10.

29. Even when they are assigned to undercover operations, some Sheriff's Office law enforcement officers would still be identifiable to the public because they may be assigned overt activities, id. at 67:14–22[2]; while performing such overt tasks, they may need to identify themselves to the public, id. at 67:23–68:5; and they remain easily identifiable because they are wearing uniforms with badges and name tags, id. at 68:6–16.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Applicable legal standards.

30. This Court applies a de novo standard to its plenary review of the OOR's determinations. Bowling v. Off. of Open Recs., 75 A.3d 453, 477 (Pa. 2013).

31. The RTKL is "designed to promote access to official government information in order to prohibit secrets, scrutinize the actions of public officials, and make public officials accountable for their actions," McKelvey v. Pa. Dep't of Health, 255 A.3d 385, 400 (Pa. 2021) (quoting Pa. State Educ. Ass'n v. Commonwealth, 148 A.3d 142, 155 (Pa. 2016)), and must be interpreted "liberally to effect its object and promote justice," Levy v. Senate of Pa., 65 A.3d 361, 380 (Pa. 2013).

32. "The burden of proving that a record of a Commonwealth agency or local agency is exempt from public access shall be on the Commonwealth agency or local agency receiving a request by a preponderance of the evidence." 65 P.S. § 67.708(a)(1); Borough of Pottstown v. Suber-Aponte, 202 A.3d 173, 180 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2019) (same). "[P]reponderance of the evidence" means "evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it." Commonwealth v. D'Amato, 856 A.2d 806, 819 (Pa. 2004) (citation omitted).

33. By the very text of the RTKL statute, the Pennsylvania General Assembly stated that "[a] record in the possession of a Commonwealth agency or local agency shall be presumed to be a public record," unless "the record is exempt under [RTKL] section 708," privileged, or exempt from disclosure under another law, regulation, or judicial order. 65 P.S. § 67.305(a); see also Am. C.L. Union of Pa. v. Pa. State Police, 232 A.3d 654, 656–57 (Pa. 2020) ("[C]ourts reviewing OOR[] decisions[] must construe" exceptions to disclosure "strictly, lest they subvert the RTKL's purpose.").

34. Though agencies responding to a records request "shall consider and apply each exemption separately," 65 P.S. § 67.708(e), they must do so within the RTKL's statutory scheme, effectuating its remedial intent, Levy, 65 A.3d at 380, resolving conflicts between disclosure mandates and exemptions in favor of access to presumptively public records, see 65 P.S. § 67.305.

B. The Sheriff's Office cannot redact from public employment records the names of law enforcement officers who are not actively performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity.

35. 65 P.S. § 708(b)(6)(iii) provides an exemption to the public disclosure obligations of the RTKL to permit "[a]n agency [to] redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record" (emphasis added).

36. The statute uses the gerund "performing," and does not say "has performed," "will perform," "may perform" or any other past, future or potential performance. In other words, the exemption is, on its face, limited to individuals currently performing certain activities at the time of the request.

37. Interpreting this unambiguous language to include past or future activity would be contrary to the plain language of the statute, lacks any limiting principle, and would thus lead to vastly overbroad withholding of information that the RTKL requires be public. For example, a Pennsylvania agency could redact the names of employees who once performed undercover activities a decade ago or who might perform an undercover activity sometime in the distant future.

38. Such an overinclusive definition would also eviscerate the provision that appears immediately before this exemption in the RTKL, which provides:

> Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the release of the name, position, salary, actual compensation or other payments or expenses, employment contract, employment-related contract or agreement and length of service of a public official or an agency employee.

65 P.S. § 708(b)(6)(ii).

39. This statutory provision, in conjunction with the ensuing exemption, mandates that "[t]he only name of a public employee that cannot be released is the name of an individual, whether a police officer or not, who is engaged in undercover or covert work." Pa. State Police v. McGill, 83 A.3d 476, 480 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2014) (emphasis added).

40. The Sheriff's Office knows which of its law enforcement officers are engaged in active undercover work. As noted above, Chief Manning testified that there is a "static number of definitive detectives doing undercover or plainclothes work" on "a regular basis." Trial Tr. at 34:6–8, 36:25–37:3.

41. The Sheriff's Office's position that it may redact and withhold the names of twice that "static number" of individuals—including the names of law enforcement officers who are merely "believe[d]" to be going undercover, id. at 22:5–6, or are "most likely [to] go" undercover, id. at 24:1—is inconsistent with the plain language of the RTKL.

42. As Petitioners argued to this Court, if the Pennsylvania legislature "intended the exemption to cover individuals who may be tasked with performing undercover activities, it would have said so." Id. at 20:2–5 (emphasis added). Instead, in enacting the RTKL, the lawmakers in Pennsylvania designed a statute "to promote access to official government information," McKelvey, 255 A.3d at 400 (citation omitted), through a strict interpretation of its statutory exemptions, Am. C.L. Union of Pa., 232 A.3d at 656–57.

43. The Sheriff's Office has not proven by a preponderance of the evidence that each law enforcement officer whose name it has redacted from the Sheriff's Office's Redacted List was actively performing an undercover or covert activity during the relevant time period of the 2025 Request. See supra paras. 23–24.

44. In fact, the Sheriff's Office has not provided this Court with any assurances that each law enforcement officer whose name it has redacted actually would—during some defined point in time—act in an undercover capacity. See id.

45. Instead, Chief Manning testified that a handful of employees on the Sheriff's Office's Unredacted List were presently engaging in undercover work. Trial Tr. at 46:1–49:2; see, e.g., id. at 46:23–24 ("Number three is a hard yes. He's a task force officer."); id. at 47:4 ("Number four is a task force member."); id. at 48:24–49:2 ("There are a large number on this first page that are hard yeses that are on task forces . . . .").

46. The Sheriff's Office has not met its burden to substantiate its withholdings and demonstrate that close to half of all employees in the Sheriff's Office are performing undercover work and are therefore not subject to the RTKL's presumption of access.

C. The Sheriff's Office has not demonstrated that the identification of each law enforcement officer whose name has been redacted, including those tasked with actively performing in undercover operations, would present personal security risks.

47. Pursuant to 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii), a record which "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual" is exempt from access.

48. "An agency invoking this exception must demonstrate a 'reasonable likelihood' of a 'substantial and demonstrable risk to a person's personal security.'" Posey v. Dep't of Corr., 329 A.3d 864, 869 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2025) (quoting Del. Cnty. v. Schaefer ex rel. Phila. Inquirer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2012)). A "substantial and demonstrable risk" is a risk that is "actual or real and apparent." Id. (quoting Borough of Pottstown, 202 A.3d at 180). "Thus, in order to show a reasonable likelihood, an agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture." Id. (citing Cal. Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2018)).

49. "Absent particularized concerns about the personal security of an individual, the General Assembly has made the policy decision that 'nothing . . . shall preclude the release of the name . . . of a public official or an agency employee.'" McGill, 83 A.3d at 480 (quoting 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(ii)) (emphasis added).

50. Chief Manning testified that the security risk raised by identifying law enforcement officers involved with undercover operations is based on the possibility that a suspect could target an officer upon learning that he or she is engaged in law enforcement. Trial Tr. at 60:17–21.

51. However, Chief Manning admitted that not all undercover activities involve officers hiding their identities during direct interactions with criminal suspects, and instead involve gathering evidence remotely, through the creation of fake identities during online operations, id. at 63:7–13; and drone surveillance, id. at 39:16–21, 66:14–22; which do not necessitate face-to-face interactions with suspects, id. at 64:24–65:2, 67:9–13; and do not lead to potentially dangerous sting operations, id. at 66:5–10. The redaction of these individuals' names cannot be justified under the "personal security" exemption.

52. Chief Manning further admitted that even when Sheriff's Office employees are involved in some capacity with undercover operations, their status as law enforcement officers may be readily apparent—for example, when a sheriff's deputy assists with surveillance operations, they may also perform courtroom security, during which time they wear a uniform with a badge and name tag. Id. at 68:17–69:8. The "personal security" exemption cannot justify redacting the names of individuals whose status as law enforcement officers is readily apparent to any member of the public who encounters them in the courthouse or elsewhere.

53. To the extent a law enforcement officer was previously involved in undercover operations, will perform in an undercover capacity in the future, or simply may be called upon to perform undercover at some undetermined time, the Sheriff's Office has not presented any particularized concerns for how disclosing the names of such officers would create any cognizable risk to their personal security. See supra paras. 25–29.

54. In sum, given that disclosure of the names of officers currently engaged in undercover operations does not necessarily present a risk to that individual's personal safety, and that, moreover, those individuals may be identifiable as Sheriff's Office employees through their overt, public actions, the Sheriff's Office has not met its burden of demonstrating that 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii) applies to almost half of its employees.

D. Conclusion.

55. For the aforementioned reasons, this Court should: (i) reverse the OOR Final Determination of March 3, 2025, (ii) declare that the Sheriff's Office has not proven by the preponderance of the evidence that it is permitted to withhold the names of the law enforcement officers at issue, and (iii) order the Sheriff's Office to disclose the names of its law enforcement officers who, at the time of Petitioners' 2025 Request, were not actively performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity.

56. In the alternative, if this Court decides to uphold the OOR's Final Determination of March 3, 2025, it should (i) declare that the Sheriff's Office has not acted in accordance with that administrative decision, and (ii) order the disclosure of the names of law enforcement officers who the Sheriff's Office could not confirm at the time of Petitioners' 2025 Request had performed, were performing, or will perform an undercover or covert law enforcement activity.

P R O C E E D I N G S

THE COURT: Good afternoon everybody. Today is the date and time set for a petition for review of the final determination of the Office of Open Records. That is case SA 25-170, Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource, petitioners v. Allegheny County and the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office.

Counsel, please enter your appearance for the record.

MR. SINGER: Matt Singer for the petitioners, Charlie Wolfson and PublicSource.

MS. BURKE: Paula Knudsen Burke, K-N-U-D-S-E-N, B-U-R-K-E for petitioners and Attorney Burke is just fine. Thank you.

MS. SHIELS: May it please the Court, my name is Maggie Shiels, S-H-I-E-L-S. I am here representing the Allegheny County Open Records Office.

MR. GOODRICH: John P. Goodrich, solicitor for the Sheriff of Allegheny County Kevin Kraus.

THE COURT: We had a brief prehearing discussion. Is there anything we need to discuss further before we proceed?

MR. GOODRICH: Procedurally, Your Honor, when we -- or I -- examine on direct Chief Manning, one of the issues, obviously, is the redaction of it so what I want to do with your permission is give you a copy of the unredacted and redacted and have the Chief have a copy of the unredacted in case there are any issues and I'm going to go through why the redactions are there.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOODRICH: I think that would help speed this up.

THE COURT: Any objection?

MR. SINGER: We don't have an objection. We've had discussions with opposing counsel and there are two spreadsheets, there is the version of the sheriff's spreadsheet, there is the spreadsheet that counsel just mentioned that is the revised spreadsheet that was provided to us from the county. It is the one that we have here today and we would like to submit that to you, Your Honor, as an exhibit. I believe that counsel for the sheriff is going to submit a different version of a spreadsheet which is the basis for the redactions that were put into the spreadsheet that we have been provided. We were provided this spreadsheet -- which I could show you -- right before the status conference that we had in September.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Singer, did you want to make any opening statement or Ms. Burke?

MR. SINGER: Yes. So since, Your Honor, you don't have any briefing in front of you, we were wondering if you would like us to provide some background to this case before we get into true openings if that makes sense.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. SINGER: So, Your Honor, our clients are journalists and non-profit news organizations that serve and engage with the people in the Pittsburgh region. As part of its journalism, it is focused on government transparency. Our client submits an annual RTKL request with Allegheny County at the beginning of each year to inform its readers with basic information about who the county employed the year prior. This includes their names, their positions, their employment status, their salary, and other basic information.

As you can see, Your Honor, in petitioner's joint stipulation of facts with the county which is docketed at No. 14, I believe you can see an example of a prior request that petitioners submitted for 2023 employment and demographic information. This was submitted in January of 2024 and the county initially redacted a significant number of employee names per the undercover exemption to the Right to Know law. To resolve this request, there were proceedings at the OOR and the county ended up providing our client with a spreadsheet that only redacted the names of those individuals who were, as they said, currently performing undercover work. You can see in the joint stipulation of facts there is attached to that stipulation the affidavit which the county provided our client that explains the redactions were made to only those employees that were currently performing undercover work at the time of the request. Also, attached to that stipulation you can find a spreadsheet, the revised spreadsheet, which our clients got at the time which only had approximately 17 percent of the listed employees at the Sheriff's Office names redacted.

So after that request and that subsequent revised spreadsheet was provided to our clients, once again, at this time in January of 2025 our clients submitted another RTKL request this time for 2024 employment and demographic data from the county. Once again, our clients faced many redactions to the names of employees on the initial spreadsheet that the county directed them to. Approximately 80 percent of the Sheriff's Office employees' names were redacted. Your Honor, I don't think you have at this moment that spreadsheet. I don't think it has been docketed. I would be happy to provide you with the full spreadsheet which I advise is very large because it is the entire county. I also have a version that is just the Sheriff's Office employees. So if you would like to see that, I could --

THE COURT: Sure. Any objections?

MR. GOODRICH: I don't know what the relevance is unless historical facts only. We're here for 2024.

MR. SINGER: So this was the spreadsheet that was at issue initially until September right before the status conference of this year. So, you know, it's relevant to the extent that it shows, first, what the county provided our clients. This is not, you know, years ago, this is what was initially provided to our clients.

THE COURT: Okay. Is this just for the Court to take judicial notice or are you actually entering this as an exhibit in this hearing?

MR. SINGER: We would be fine with Your Honor taking judicial notice of it. To the extent that you would like to see it --

THE COURT: I would like to see it.

MR. SINGER: Would you like --

THE COURT: I'll determine what, if any, relevance it does have.

MR. GOODRICH: Is that the 80 percent, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I believe so, yes.

MR. GOODRICH: That is from the website just for clarity.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SHIELS: Is that right, Matt?

MR. GOODRICH: Matt, we didn't give that to you. I just, for point of clarity, that was from the county website. That was not provided by Maggie or myself.

THE COURT: All right, I'll take it.

MR. SINGER: I have the version filtered for the Sheriff's Office and the full version. Would you like both?

THE COURT: I'll take both.

MR. GOODRICH: I want to make sure it wasn't redacted and then redacted.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Singer.

MR. SINGER: So you have the spreadsheet which our clients were initially directed to which has approximately 80 percent of the employees' names of the Sheriff's Office redacted.

As I was stating, months after this lawsuit was filed, right before we met in September at the status conference, we were provided by the county with a revised spreadsheet for the Sheriff's Office which still maintained redactions for almost, around 46 to 47 percent of the employees at the Sheriff's Office. I also have that spreadsheet which I do not think has been filed or docketed so I could provide you with that one as well. I have a version that has the redactions highlighted. I don't know if that is easier for you to see where the redactions were made.

THE COURT: Sure, whatever you think would be instructive for the Court.

MR. GOODRICH: May I make a suggestion that maybe we should mark these as exhibits now.

THE COURT: Again, is this going to be entered as an exhibit?

MR. SINGER: I think this one we'll enter as an exhibit. I think we're fine with that, if we want to start putting in the exhibits now, if that works.

THE COURT: That is fine with me. Did you premark them or are they not marked yet?

MS. BURKE: We forgot our exhibit tabs.

THE COURT: You can mark them right on the bottom. So we can call this P-1.

MS. BURKE: Yeah.

MR. SINGER: We're marking this exhibit as P-1. It is the revised spreadsheet that was provided from the county displaying the names of the employees at the Sheriff's Office with the names that had been redacted and highlighted.

THE COURT: And, I'm sorry, what was the date of this?

MR. SINGER: I think it was --

THE COURT: You said they provided it. Do you recall on or about?

MR. SINGER: It was in September.

THE COURT: Of this year?

MR. SINGER: Of this year.

THE COURT: Any objection, Mr. Goodrich?

MR. GOODRICH: No objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Shiels.

MS. SHIELS: No.

THE COURT: We'll enter that.

MR. SINGER: If I could quickly finish this brief opening. All this is to say that there has been many inconsistencies with how the county and the Sheriff's Office has redacted employees' names pursuant to the RTKL and specifically the undercover exemption to the RTKL. Ultimately, this has led to a situation in which our clients do not know what to expect each year when they request the names of county employees including employees from the Sheriff's Office. That is why we're here today.

THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Singer. Ms. Shiels, did you say you wanted to make an opening statement?

MS. SHIELS: I did.

Matt, was that your opening statement or something else?

MR. SINGER: That was a background preopening.

MS. SHIELS: I have something very similar about background. I don't know what --

THE COURT: Do you want to do that now?

MS. SHIELS: Sure.

THE COURT: Do the backgrounds now and then we'll do the openings.

MS. SHIELS: Yeah. So, Your Honor, I'm here on behalf of the Allegheny County Open Records Office and Jessica Garofolo in our Opens Record Office. I've been involved with this case pretty much since the beginning so I did want to give you a little background.

Allegheny County publishes data on-line about all of our employees. The current year's data is updated periodically, I think four times a year. In December of each year the county publishes data for everyone that is employed that year. The end of that year, it will be current as of December. The data fields are name, department, job title, whether the person is an elected official, date started, sex, ethnicity, date terminated, payroll status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, incentive pay, and gross pay. So this data includes redacted names for several employees of the county. We've already dismissed the district attorney and the police. There are several sheriff department employees whose names are redacted in that data and there are also two employees at Kane Regional Centers who are redacted but those two people are not the subject of this case either. I just want to basically give you the background.

So when individuals request demographic data and salary data about county employees, the Right to Know law doesn't compel the county to create a record and it does allow the county to point requestors toward the internet. So our first is to refer requestors to the website from which they can download data and filter it however they want and create their own records.

Mr. Wolfson requested data in early 2024 for county employees in 2023 and, as Mr. Singer explained, the county pointed him to the website. He appealed. The Office of Open Records found that the county needed to review its data and assess whether all the redacted names were proper. In the joint stipulation, you will be able to see that filed determination which has some information about the arguments the county made and didn't make but I just want to point out that there wasn't a lot of fighting it for lack of a better phrase. We had our human resources manager say these are the names that I'm told to redact and when they said look it over again, review it again, she went to the other individuals, the sheriff, the district attorney, and police and she said who is undercover and then, as Mr. Singer said, the county gave him that spreadsheet. So this is not necessarily by way of argument, it is just more of explanation.

When this issue came up again in January of 2025 and Mr. Wolfson requested the data for 2024, there was a bit more of a meeting of the minds and a discussion about what redactions should be on the internet and what redactions should be turned over to Right to Know law requestors and the arguments that we made and the affidavits that we submitted are again part of the record in this case which I'm going to tender to you in a moment but just for your understanding that, yeah, there has been inconsistency, and with this case and the work that everyone is doing on it, we're trying to do the right thing under the law. So we acknowledge that in the past we did provide a record showing the names of only individuals currently undercover however your decision is whether that is actually what the law requires or whether the law allows for a broader interpretation.

So quickly, I do have some exhibits just setting forth the proceeding in the case before you.

Do you guys have copies of all of these that we sent you?

MS. BURKE: Yeah.

MS. SHIELS: Everything is in the records of the Office of Open Records, everything should be in there. I thought Your Honor might appreciate having it set out a little bit more chronologically.

THE COURT: Sure. We'll do R-A.

MS. SHIELS: I didn't put R.

THE COURT: You just put A.

MS. SHIELS: Exhibit A is Mr. Wolfson's Right to Know law request tendered on January 11th I believe. Exhibit B is a letter that the county sent him requesting an extension of time. Exhibit C is the final response in which the county directed him to the public data on the website and informed him that there were some redactions to that data. The county specifically cited Section 708(b)(1) which is the personal security exemption and also 708(b)(6) which is the covert law enforcement exemption. There are some other exemptions in this letter that I don't believe are at issue so I'm not going to focus on those exemptions. Exhibit D is Mr. Wolfson's appeal which was timely submitted to the Office of Open Records. And, finally, Exhibit E is the decision that Your Honor is here to review. It is the Office of Open Records final determination.

When you read through that and especially if you compare it to the one from the joint stipulation, it is clear that the county took this case in a different direction and is thinking about it differently and we would, I would, certainly assert, that that is permissible as people evolve in their roles.

So with that, I'm going to leave it to Mr. Goodrich to make the policy arguments but I do just want to assert that as the counsel for the Open Records Office, we do support the sheriff's decision here and we do not think that the Right to Know law limits redactions to individuals currently performing undercover law enforcement and elections.

THE COURT: Mr. Singer and Ms. Burke, any objections to Exhibits A, B, C, D, and E?

MR. SINGER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Again, was that your opening as well?

MS. SHIELS: That is all I have proposed. Mr. Goodrich may have something.

THE COURT: Mr. Goodrich, do you have any background to provide or just do an opening?

MR. GOODRICH: I'm just going to do a brief opening. I'm the last horse in this race as they say.

THE COURT: I will go back to Mr. Singer and have him do his opening.

MR. SINGER: Thank you, Your Honor. In bringing this case, the petitioners simply request that the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office follow the law and disclose the names of law enforcement officers that are not actively engaged in undercover operations. The Sheriff's Office has asserted the names of law enforcement. Their law enforcement officers who were not performing in undercover activities at the time of petitioners' request are not subject to the disclosure and two RTKL exemptions. The first protects the names of individuals performing undercover covert law enforcement activities; the second protects information that would only likely result in substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm or personal security of an individual.

With respect to the first exemption, petitioners note that the term performing in ordinary English requires someone to be doing something presently. It does not mean might some day do or once did. That is Pennsylvania law provides when statutory language is clear and unambiguous the text must be given the respect as written. Performing is unambiguous. It denotes current ongoing action. The Sheriff's Office would like the statutory exemption to allow an agency to redact the name of any individual who is, was, or may sometime in the future perform undercover or covert law enforcement activity. However, if the general assembly intended the exemption to cover individuals who may be tasked with performing undercover activities, it would have said so. This erroneous instruction undermines the RTKL's foundational presumption of access. The RTKL says all records are public and exemptions to be construed narrowly. The Sheriff's Office's interpretation does just the opposite. Agencies cannot interpret exemptions to reach a preferred conclusion. They are limited by the words of the statute and here the statute is clear and unambiguous.

With respect to the second exemption, the personal security exemption, the Sheriff's Office must demonstrate disclosure of the names of law enforcement officers not actively performing undercover activities or present a reasonable likelihood of substantial demonstrable risk to individual security. This standard requires more than conjecture. As the Commonwealth Court has described in Pennsylvania State Police vs. McGill, absent particularized concerns about the personal security of the individual, the general assembly has made the policy decision that nothing shall preclude the release of the name of a public official or agency employee. The only name of a public employee that cannot be released is the name of an individual, whether a police officer or not, who is engaged in undercover or covert work.

To the extent that the Sheriff's Office witness today is only able to talk about hypothetical situations rather than concrete facts demonstrating a risk that is actual, real, or apparent such speculation should be rejected. If an officer is not actively working undercover, it is difficult to imagine that Pennsylvania law would expressly provide the disclosure of the name of public employees and would permit continued confidentiality. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Goodrich.

MR. GOODRICH: Very briefly, Your Honor. We all can read and understand the English language here. I'm relying on the opinion of the Office of Public Records where they talk about statutory construction 708 and whether or not performing now, then, or when. It is, very briefly, outlined on pages 7, 8, and 9 in the Office of Open Records when they found in favor of us that it is when you're going to be performing or believe you're going to be performing. The public safety of my officers are tantamount to the utmost importance to us. It's very simple.

The agreement that you sign, the order of court, the stipulations that you sign is contrary to the argument Mr. Singer just made. Mr. Singer just said it is very strictly construed however they agree to the stipulation that the DA and the county that people that are performing undercover convert now which is what he just argued to you but then will also be doing it in 2026. So he just expanded his own argument on the stipulation. Our argument is and the reason we could not enter into the stipulation but we tried to get this so it is not on your plate today, we cannot say with one hundred percent certainty who may or may not go covert undercover in 2026. You are going to hear testimony today from the Chief that out of the 89 people who are redacted, we know a hard number, 46, are constantly stagnant but there is another 43, 44 that float in and out. He's going to explain to you why the setup of the Sheriff's Office is unique as opposed to other law enforcement offices. We have sex crimes, we have counterfeit, we have the federal, state child matters. The list goes on and on with people that go in and out.

As you're well aware, the Sheriff's Office is unique in law enforcement because we are the protector of the courthouse. We protect the court system which means about 70 to 80 of our 165 deputies are stationed in the courthouse. Their job is to protect the courts, the judges, the courthouse, and the safety of the system. However those are the people that also get drawn out to do this covert. If we get a phone call tonight by the feds that they need a task force and they need 30 of our deputies, 30 of those deputies may be some of the deputies on this list that are not redacted because what happens, what we're going to show you and testify to today is that the people that are on this list are the hard list, the 40-some, I think it is 45, and then the other people that have gone or most likely go. The problem why we cannot agree with Mr. Singer's position is there may be four or five or six that don't go but we don't know that because we don't have a crystal ball of what is going to happen in 2026. If we had that, we wouldn't be here today. We would agree to what the language was in the people that are currently within the last year or going to be within the next year but if we agree to that and we're wrong, then we commit fraud. As an officer of the court, we can't do that. That's why we're here today. What we're trying to do is make a good faith effort to comply with the law and protect our officers. That's the long and short of it itself.

THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Mr. Singer, do you have any witnesses to call?

MR. SINGER: We do not.

THE COURT: Do you have any more exhibits that you want to enter?

MR. SINGER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So then you rest your case and will just make legal argument?

MR. SINGER: And cross the witness.

THE COURT: As well, yeah. All right, Mr. Goodrich.

MR. GOODRICH: I call Chief Manning to the stand, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOODRICH: Again, if I can provide to help to expedite this, I will give you a copy of the unredacted and redacted and the Chief will have a copy of that as well.

RICHARD MANNING,

a witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

MR. GOODRICH: May I approach my witness, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Sure. And, Mr. Singer, do you have any objection to counsel for the Sheriff's Office --

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, we don't have any objection to the presentation of what I think we need to mark as an exhibit.

MR. GOODRICH: Yeah.

MS. BURKE: Whatever the exhibit will be marked as and with an in-camera copy going to Your Honor. However I would note that what we have premarked as P-1 --

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. BURKE: -- which was given to us on September 18th, I did go back and find that date, subsequent to the meet and confer with Your Honor was provided to us by the county. P-1 is the document that we've been working off of for today's proceedings. The document that is going to be handed up by Mr. Goodrich is a different document. We've identified numerous differences so we don't object to it. We just want to note for the Court that we just received this document today.

THE COURT: Right, it is not the same document that you received on September 18th.

MS. BURKE: Correct. We will cross-examine the witness on the distinctions between P-1 and this document.

THE COURT: We'll call this document R-F.

MS. BURKE: F as in Frank?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. SHIELS: If that is where we are.

THE COURT: Yes, that is where we are.

MR. GOODRICH: So the document that I'm going to give you is F.

THE COURT: So the redacted --

MR. GOODRICH: Well, I'm not admitting that. I apologize to interrupt.

THE COURT: That is fine, go ahead.

MR. GOODRICH: The unredacted is not going to be part of the record.

THE COURT: That's what I was going to say.

MR. GOODRICH: I can mark it as an exhibit.

MS. SHIELS: How does that work with filing exhibits later?

THE COURT: It's not an exhibit but a document for in-camera review. Is that acceptable?

MS. BURKE: That is acceptable from the petitioners, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The actual document is R --

MS. BURKE: If, for some reason, the Court later sees fit to incorporate it, there is a confidential data that could be used to shield that from the public view and we would have no objection to that.

THE COURT: Okay, thank you. So Respondent Exhibit F, R-F is entered with no objection, correct?

MS. BURKE: Correct.

THE COURT: Also I should have mentioned it before we started but I'll mention it now, there is a local rule that is getting less new, it is relatively new, that I have to designate a party or someone from each party to file their exhibits on the docket. So for the petitioners, Ms. Burke or Mr. Singer, which one of you would prefer to be the individual designated?

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, I think I will take that assignment since I'm the licensed PA attorney. Mr. Singer is just pro hac. Not just but.

THE COURT: Ms. Burke will do that. The county, between Mr. Goodrich and Ms. Shiels.

MS. SHIELS: I can do it, certainly.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GOODRICH: So, Judge, after you have --

THE COURT: Is that the unredacted copy?

MR. GOODRICH: This is the unredacted here so you have both copies.

THE COURT: Okay, thank you very much.

MR. GOODRICH: May I proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GOODRICH: I'm going to lead him a little bit on his background.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. GOODRICH:

Q. Chief, for the record, can you state your name, your employment, how long you've been with the Sheriff's Office, and how you've matriculated through the office?

A. My name is Richard Manning, M-A-N-N-I-N-G, chief deputy sheriff for Allegheny County. I've been with the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office twenty-six-and-a-half years. I was hired in 1999. Since that time I've worked as a fugitive detective. I've worked as a standard deputy sheriff fugitive detective. I've served writs, I've served as a task force officer with the FBI for six years, I was a sergeant, I was an acting lieutenant, I was a commander in charge of investigations, and I acted as chief deputy until I was promoted officially, I believe, in October of this year.

Q. Your current position is?

A. Chief deputy sheriff.

Q. What does that mean?

A. I oversee the operations of the entire office. There are three divisions, we have the courts division, we have a civil division that deals with a lot more patrol and service of legal process, and our investigations unit.

Q. It's my understanding there are 208 approximate employees of the Sheriff's Office; is that correct?

A. I believe so.

Q. What is the breakdown? In other words, I don't need the exact number unless you have those, I'm sure.

A. We're slated for 177 deputy sheriffs but we're down about 16 or 18 positions currently. So we're looking at possibly 161 to 165 current employed deputy sheriffs. The remainder are civilian employees that work in our civil process unit, real estate.

Q. As well as people like me, solicitor, Solicitor Bill Stocky, other people?

A. I included the solicitor in that 160 number. I would assume that is still a sworn position.

Q. Relative to the matter that we're here today, did you have an opportunity to meet with me and go over documents?

A. Yes.

Q. Initially, did we go through an initial list, unredacted list, in your office to see who you believed as the chief were people that should be redacted pursuant to the Right to Know statutes?

A. Yes.

Q. And do you have an unredacted list in front of you?

A. I do.

Q. Is that similar to the list that you had when we did this? Do you recall when we did this?

A. I don't recall the date.

Q. Would it have been sometime early fall?

A. Yes.

Q. Were we doing that in preparation to turn it over relative to the pretrial conciliation that was going on?

A. Correct.

Q. So I want you to explain as well as background to His Honor the different undercover covert operations that the Sheriff's Office is involved in.

A. So as the Sheriff's Office of Allegheny County, all of our deputy sheriffs are fully fledged police officers. So we're not your average sheriff's office and we're not your average police department. One of our main priorities is to be the long arm of the courts. The vast majority of our deputy sheriffs work bank hours when the courts are open so the vast majority of our agency is daylight Monday through Friday, weekends, holidays. Because of that, we're not equally spread across shifts. So a lot of the details that our deputy sheriffs are involved in are covert and undercover. Most of the overtime that comes into our office has to do with the participation that we have and the various task forces and various operations that we're involved in throughout the year.

We have three fugitive units. There's a supervisor and approximately four detectives, a canine assigned to each unit. We have about eight federal task force officers, I think that is the correct number. Those task forces, particularly the FBI and DEA, there are various Title III investigations that our deputy sheriffs get involved in that have to do with OCDETF. I don't know all the letters in OCDETF to give you right now. But this is federal funding and there is a finite number. So a lot of our younger deputies that are lower on the pay scale, it helps us to employ them in doing this surveillance and Title III wire monitoring if we utilize them because they are not high on the pay scale with their time on the job. It also gives them police experience they wouldn't normally receive working standard details. So because of their lower pay scales, a lot of the younger folks that are beyond our static number of definitive detectives doing undercover or plainclothes work, these folks are working in an overtime capacity a lot of times, working the surveillance and electronic surveillance.

We do sex travelers. The folks that are -- we have task force officers that are posing as young males or females where there's folks traveling where there are sting operations. We have during a lot of the concert events and football games, we have deputies that are working in undercover capacity to arrest folks that are selling counterfeit merchandise. We have multiple drug and gun investigations involving DEA and FBI. A drone unit. There are a lot of extracurricular activities that the Sheriff's Office is involved in than what people normally see us doing on a daily basis in the courts and serving writs.

We are multi-facetted with regard to the amount of investigations and the different types of activities that we do on off-hours as well as our investigators that we said were our static number which is about half of the total number.

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, just a clarification, I could not hear if it was sex traffickers or sex travelers?

THE WITNESS: Both. We have -- I'm trying to explain, there is so much to explain, but we have a deputy sheriff that is assigned to the violent crimes against children task force, for example. He deals with sexual predators that are traveling and we have to bring deputies in to do surveillance for those types of takedowns. He's also dealing with the transfer of child pornography and sex trafficking with regard to underage women that are being trafficked for that purpose.

Q. Also, we have a canine unit?

A. Yes, we have five canines currently.

Q. They can be out at any time of day or night, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. They have handlers, specific handlers, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. When they go out, they don't go out by their selves?

A. No.

Q. You also have a branch that when the Court tells somebody to show up and they don't show up, you go get them, don't you?

A. Those are your fugitive task force.

Q. Right. So you have a breakdown. You have identification-wise, you can say that there is some that are static and some that are not static, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. From reviewing the list that you had, the unredacted and then you went to the redacted, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. I believe there are -- how many people are static? I think you said like 44 or something?

A. There was something in the vicinity of 44, 45ish.

Q. Those are the people that are constantly undercover or covert?

A. Or doing those activities on a regular basis, yes.

Q. What happens if you need more people?

A. So, for example, I just received an e-mail from one of our task force members about pending T-III investigations, T-III being Title III federal surveillance where we will swear in sometimes 30 deputy sheriffs so that we have a decent pool of investigators or detectives or deputies, whoever is able to work. As I said before, we're not evenly spread across shifts like a standard police department. For example, if we have 30 officers, ten are working first, second, or third shift, right, so the vast number of deputies are working in the courts because this is our bread and butter and this is our primary function is the courts. However all of these investigations need to be manned on off-hours. If we're doing a Title III wire, this is something that requires, you know, around-the-clock watching pole cams, those types of investigations.

Q. So the people that work in the court system, there is approximately what, 80, 85?

A. That sounds about correct.

Q. That is family, criminal, civil, down at the municipal court, traffic, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And they're the ones that you say work bank hours?

A. Correct.

Q. Is that where you draw from when you need to fill extra covert and investigatory matters?

A. Yes, that is our largest pool.

Q. Because the 45 or 46 or 44 or 45 that are static, that is not the court personnel people, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. So the 40 or 45 are here out of the 160 and then you have 80 so you're up to 120 and then you got the canines, the writ people, everybody else so they add up to about 160-some people, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. So you have the 45 and then these other people come in. How often are you using these other people?

A. It depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well. Like I said, with the merchandise detail that goes on where they are covert, walking through the crowds of folks. We have a mobile field force unit that we had to put together for a lot of the civil unrest in 2020. We have an intel squad that works that that are assigned to that. Most of those are in the crowds providing intel, keeping an eye on things when there is civil unrest. That is a lot of times the Sheriff's Office gets utilized for strikes, for uprisings, for different things where the local police are stressed and need assistance from us. I said our drone unit, we have multiple drone operators that go out to basically videotape drug buys and other types of interactions, illicit interactions that are requiring them to be in a covert status.

Q. And when you say somebody is undercover, what do you mean by undercover?

A. So it could be anything from assuming another identity which would be going to that extreme would be our task force officers that are involved in that type of covert, I need to make someone believe that I'm not a police officer versus those that are in plainclothes for an element of surprise which would be also covert or sitting on surveillance where they could be -- some people could walk by and identify them but they're not in uniform.

Q. When you compiled this list, I was present, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. What was your criteria when you were taking people and basically striking them?

A. They are either assigned to one of those units, they've worked that type of investigation.

Q. Within the last year?

A. Yes.

Q. All right, what else?

A. And they are those that are potentially going to be called for the next three or other big pool of scheduling for this type of work.

Q. So my arithmetic -- and I had to check with two other people to make sure that my addition wasn't bad -- shows that there is 89 out of 208 that are on your redacted list, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. That comes to 42 percent, 42.7 percent of the office?

A. That sounds correct, yes.

Q. Now the original list that you presented had more people on it, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. You went through and trimmed it for lack of a better term?

A. Yes.

Q. Because there were people on the list that should not have been on the list?

A. The list has changed since we did the last redactions. Since I was promoted, that left a vacancy in investigations so a commander was promoted in my position, my former position. A lieutenant who was on the list is now in investigations and should probably be stricken from the list. A new sergeant was added to the list. I'm not sure, she did covert work in the past, she is redacted if I recall correctly. There has been a lot of movement since the last we did this original list and submitted it.

Q. Even a couple months ago?

A. Yes.

Q. You've had people retire, right?

A. We are down 16 positions currently and we had to do mass transfers throughout the agency to fill these voids.

Q. What is your projection for 2026 if you have one?

A. With regard to?

Q. How many people you're going to need for task force, covert, undercover?

A. I believe the list that we provided is sufficient to whom we believe are going to be involved but I can't tell you for certain within this time period that there isn't someone else that is going to get an opportunity to be moved into one of these specialized units for one reason or another, whether somebody wishes to transfer out of that unit because of personal reasons and then we move someone else in that happens to be on the list but we can't actively within a year's time tell anyone that these numbers are one hundred percent definite because of that type of movement.

Q. So out of the -- you redacted the 88 redacted and all of that so about 45 people in the flow that may or may not go undercover covert?

A. Yes.

Q. And how many do you in your professional background, 26 years in the office doing the investigations, being the chief, how many do you believe in good faith will be going undercover and covert?

A. Just to give an educated guess because I can't be exact with any of this, I'd say a good 85 to 90 percent of that number will be utilized in one fashion or another in a covert or investigatory manner.

Q. You are talking about a handful of people that may or may not go?

A. Depending upon the need within that year.

Q. Hypothetically, if you get a phone call tomorrow from the feds and they need a task force and they need 30 people, where do those 30 people come from?

A. They come from a mixture of that list but a lot of the younger folks, as I explained before who are lower on the tier, when we get a finite number and the federal government says you have $25,000 to spend on surveillance overtime which the agency task force officers will fill their general shift, the remainder of the shifts will have a calendar or will have deputies that maybe they are working in court that day but they will sign up for surveillance in the evenings or overnights and we fill those calendars. So we need a larger pool of folks to have the ability to schedule all of this to cover the detail.

Q. That is where they come?

A. Correct.

Q. How long does it take to get new deputies in?

A. We're currently in the process of doing background investigations and polygraphs. Like I said, we're down 16 positions. We have six additional if the county gives them to us next year. We're scrambling to maintain that level of just minimum staffing because of the amount of retirees.

Q. I'm sure the Court is aware of this because of budgetary issues going on in Allegheny County but for counsel here, you're down 16. It's not like you can go out on the street and just hire 16 deputies, right?

A. Correct.

Q. There are budgetary issues?

A. Correct.

Q. You say 160, 161 deputies now and you're missing 16 to 17?

A. That's correct.

Q. How many do you hope to fill this next year?

A. We're hoping to fill 22 positions but we don't have the numbers on the entry exam to maintain that. I think out of a possible 134 eligible candidates, after the physical agility, that whittles down, you're probably getting one decent candidate out of eight to ten applicants which puts us around 12 if we're lucky.

Q. I would like to go through this briefly. I want you to look at the first page of the redacted and the first page of the unredacted.

A. Okay.

Q. The Court has a copy. I want you to go down and just go down, all the way down the list and tell me whether they are part of the hard number or the number that you believe are going to be used. So number one on the list is redacted?

A. Number one is part of that hard list.

Q. Number two is not redacted, correct, Albright?

A. Albright is not. He is at the academy now. He was a detective but he has been at the academy for two years.

Q. So he's not undercover covert?

A. He is not.

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, sorry to interrupt. We're all on R-F, correct?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GOODRICH: Yes.

Q. Megan Ashbaugh, administrative, not covert?

A. Correct.

Q. Number four?

A. Number three is a hard yes. He's a task force officer.

Q. Who is that?

A. Number three on my list, he's at the FBI.

Q. Okay. Number four?

A. Number four is a task force member.

Q. Let me look at your list. Barrett, he is not redacted why?

A. Baek, you mean?

Q. Baek, yeah.

A. Jihoon Baek was a deputy sheriff. He transferred to the city police.

Q. So he is not covert?

A. He is not.

Q. Not an employee?

A. Not an employee.

Q. But he shows up on the registry for the year?

A. Yes.

Q. The next individual?

A. The next individual is a federal task force officer with FBI. That is who I believe you listed as number three.

Q. The next one is Jeffrey Belback?

A. Yes, he is a canine operator. He is a bloodhound operator but I think he is actually on one of the lists and he is sworn in on a federal case.

Q. But you weren't sure about him so you didn't redact him?

A. Correct.

Q. The next two?

A. The next two are solid blocks. The first one which is listed as number four, he is a member of the task force. The one marked as number five, he is a canine that works with our fugitive unit.

Q. Then you have six that are -- of the next six, five are sworn officers under Act 120, correct?

A. Yes, except for --

Q. One is a real estate cop?

A. That's correct.

Q. They are not going to go task?

A. That's correct.

Q. Without belaboring the point and going down the list, if you could look at the list and see who is redacted, is that consistent with people that are hard yeses or they are or have been?

A. There are a large number on this first page that are hard yeses that are on task forces on this very first list, the very first page.

Q. How about the second page?

MR. GOODRICH: I'm not going to go through this whole list, Your Honor. I just want to give you the flavor. Again, they are in alphabetical order.

A. For example, that lieutenant I said should be redacted and is on this list and is not because he was just promoted within the last month or two. There are several newer deputies on this page that will be called or have signed up for those types of investigations.

Q. Okay.

A. Some of whom are already sworn in to the federal T-III investigations where if we take somebody over to the FBI, they get sworn in on a case, that swearing in is good for a period of two years. So we utilize them in that window to do these types of investigations on overtime.

Q. So that does not mean they're doing it 24/7, does it?

A. No, it does not.

Q. So it's an ebb and flow?
A. That's correct.
Q. So what you're telling me is that there are people on this list that you and I went through within the last six months that is already not accurate?
A. That's correct.
Q. Because of modifications and changes?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that consistent with what is going to happen on an annual basis?
A. It is and, as we did before, I gave you the best possible scenario at the time. So when we do this, it may change within a month but it is not to the degree that it's -- this is still -- I'm still comfortable with the list that we provided even though there have been some changes.
Q. But the point I'm getting to is is that one of the reasons why you could not agree to the stipulations?
A. Yes.
Q. Because of the ebb and flow and the ever changing?
A. And we couldn't say with one hundred percent certainty who is going to be next to be involved in one of these types of investigations. As I said before, we are not a traditional police department or a traditional sheriff's office. We are involved in many of these investigations and more so than most legal agencies.

Q. Why is it important to have people redacted?

A. In involving themselves in these types of investigations, as everyone knows with doxxing, with threats, we deal with protection of judiciary as it is, it is a frequent concern in law enforcement for their families, for the deputies themselves to be identified by some of these folks that they are investigating, especially a lot of these federal investigations that we're involved in, whether these folks live in the same communities where these people are and can identify who they are, counter-surveillance issues. There is a myriad of concerns that law enforcement has in general for putting personal identification information out in the public realm.

We're currently dealing with scammers who are threatening to arrest people if they don't pay money because they're utilizing deputy sheriffs' names from stuff that they are able to search on general search engines claiming they are the law enforcement officer enforcing these actions and we're dealing with a number of issues with having police officers' names in the public eye on the record.

So those that are involved in these types of investigations, you know, it is difficult because it puts us in that predicament as public servants. It puts us in that danger more so than if it was not announced.

Q. Let me ask you this question, I believe there is a list that was previously provided. I'm going to show you what has been marked as P-1 and provided by plaintiffs in this matter. On the last page there is a Deputy Zemba. It is on the very last page at the bottom. Does that person work for the sheriffs?

A. She does.

Q. Does she appear on your list?

A. I do not see her on this list.

Q. She is not on the redacted or unredacted list, right?

A. I'm checking the unredacted, too. She is on the unredacted list. I am incorrect on that. Stand by. She is on the unredacted list but not the redacted list.

Q. Any explanation?

A. No because she wouldn't be redacted to my knowledge. Unless there was some issue with the Excel form, I don't see why Zemba would have been.

Q. She should be on the unredacted list?

A. Yes, that's correct.

Q. You don't know why?

A. I don't know why. I didn't create the Excel form.

Q. Okay.

MR. GOODRICH: That's all I have right now, Your Honor. Thank you.

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, with the Court's indulgence, may I examine from the bar and Mr. Singer may have some follow-up questions?

THE COURT: Sure.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. BURKE:

Q. Good afternoon.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. So you've got in front of you two exhibits, R-F and P-1, correct?

A. They are not marked but, yes, I know what you're speaking of, the unredacted and redacted, correct.

MS. BURKE: May I approach the witness? I want to make sure we're looking at the same thing.

THE COURT: Sure.

MS. BURKE: So I'm marking the redacted document that was presented by Mr. Goodrich as R-F as in Frank and the document that we handed up earlier as P-1.

THE COURT: Correct.

Q. All right, now we're on the same page. Let's start with R-F, the redacted version. I understand from your direct testimony that you sat with your counsel and helped develop this list?

A. That's correct.
Q. Did you type this list?
A. No.
Q. So you provided feedback in order for the solicitor's office to create the list?
A. Yes.
Q. So your counsel was just asking you some questions about a deputy whose name you would agree with me does not appear on R-F, that's Deputy Zemba, Z-E-M-B-A.
A. She's a sergeant, yes.
Q. But she's not on R-F?
A. She's missing from R-F, that is correct.
Q. I want to flip over to P-1. I apologize, the font on that is small.
A. That's okay.
Q. But I'll represent to you -- and opposing counsel can correct me if I'm wrong -- that this is the document that was provided to us by the county on September 18th and it is a three-page document with various Sheriff's Office employees on there; is that correct?
A. I'm sorry, I just noticed there is a page missing, that is why her name is not there.

Q. For the court reporter and for our records so we're clear, you're now talking about R-F and you believe --

A. R-F I believe there is a single page missing.

Q. So right now we're all looking at R-F. I count five pages. You think that R-F should be six pages?

A. Yes.

MS. BURKE: Do we have a page 6?

MR. GOODRICH: That is the only reason she is missing from the list because there is a whole page missing.

Q. That may hasten some of my questions because there were a number of other individuals on what is marked as P-1. If we can go to page 3 on P-1?

A. Okay.

Q. There is a host of folks starting with the S last name that, for instance, Steiner, S-T-E-I-N-E-R, and Steiner doesn't appear on R-F?

A. Well, that would be -- let me see here. That is, again, because that page is missing.

Q. R-F is the document that I was provided this morning?

MR. GOODRICH: I apologize. Apparently, because I was counting pages, six, I think you only have five.

MS. BURKE: Five.

MR. GOODRICH: So here is that page that Zemba appears. Apparently when it was copied in my office --

MS. BURKE: May I trade with you?

MR. GOODRICH: Yes.

MS. BURKE: I'm going to hand this up, Your Honor. I'm going to hand up the corrected. May we go off the record for a minute?

THE COURT: Sure.

THE COURT: Back on.

MS. BURKE: We took a break and identified that there was a page missing from R-F and our tipstaff was kind enough to make copies so I'm handing up to the witness the corrected R-F and I'm going to take from him the wrong R-F and shred that so we don't get confused. So I'm going to skip over some of the questions that I had because we've now solved the discrepancy, there was a page missing.

Q. So returning to P-1, I think you described that as an Excel spreadsheet?

A. I don't know if that is or not but it would appear to be.

Q. Do you recognize this document?

A. I don't recognize this particular document.

Q. But do you recognize the names of the persons on there as employees of the Sheriff's Office?

A. Yes.

Q. So you'll agree with me that P-1, which is entitled at the top Wolfson 202 For Final Redacted Sheriff Data, has different fields in it than R-F?

A. Yes.

Q. So basically the differences between P-1 and R-F may be in the formatting? If you know.

A. It appears to be in formatting. One is landscape, one is, you know, there are fields that are not in R-F versus what P-1 has.

Q. So just so we're clear, the document that is labeled R-F is the most up-to-date in terms of your testimony about who should, in your view, be shielded from public disclosure?

A. Correct.

MS. BURKE: I'm going to turn it over to Mr. Singer who is going to ask you a few more questions with that but I think we're done with the documents. Thank you.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. SINGER:

Q. Good afternoon.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. Some undercover deputies may only perform short-term undercover operations that last a few days or weeks, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. So these deputies are not always involved in longer-term operations that would go for more extended periods of time, right?

A. It depends. Generally speaking, they are utilized, some are utilized more frequently, some for the long-term. It depends on how long the investigation goes, how many we have in the year's time, a lot of variables involved in that, but the characterization being characterized as short-term sometimes isn't true.

Q. An officer or deputy -- is it deputy?

A. Yes.

Q. Deputies may return to regular duty after a brief undercover assignment, right?

A. Yes.

Q. You testified before about how the disclosure of the names of deputies involved in undercover operations could place officer's safety, deputy's safety, at risk?

A. The terms can be intermingled but, yes, that is correct.

Q. Would you agree that this risk centers around the fact that if a suspect became aware of an undercover deputy's true identity, they would be able to target the deputy?

A. Yes.

Q. Some undercover operations do not require a deputy to actually have in-person interactions with a suspect, correct?

A. Some, that is correct, yes.

Q. For instance, I believe you testified earlier about how some of this work, undercover work, is done through on-line interactions with certain suspects?

A. If we're talking about like, for example, the chatting for traveling, that type of thing, there would only be one agent involved typically in that or one task force officer involved in the actual communication. But the takedown, each of the surveillance crews, the rest is support that is out there watching, waiting, those are the folks that are being hired to sit and do surveillance. It is not -- they are not all involved in the electronic side of it. There is an electronic component to listening to T-III wire, you know. If they're sitting and listening to the wiretappings sort of situation, that component is part of that overtime as well but there's a surveillance component to it as well.

Q. Understood. The federal task force which I believe you referred to before; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. It includes a cyber crimes task force;

is that correct?

A. No.

Q. No?

A. The violent crimes against children is the task force that deals with some of those crimes that we were discussing before. We don't have deputies assigned to the cyber crimes unit which is a different facet of the FBI. We have deputies assigned to the safe streets task force, there's a heightened group, I don't know how to explain it but they deal with overdose deaths, they do those types of investigations. We have a sergeant that oversees the task force members who is in charge of operations with the DEA. A U.S. Marshals task force that is involved in fugitive work again. We have a deputy that is assigned to ATF. We have a deputy assigned to the district attorney's task force, they have a violent crimes group. Off the top of my head, we have four at FBI currently.

Q. So I'm trying to understand when you testified earlier about the deputies that pose as individuals on-line, where would they fall in that scheme?

A. I don't understand the question.
Q. More broadly, you testified earlier that you have deputies that pose as individuals who they are not their true identity on-line as part of some of your investigatory efforts?
A. Correct.
Q. So those individuals who are posing as other individuals on-line, they're gathering evidence remotely, right?
A. Yes.
Q. And it would require a deputy to create an undercover on-line identity, right?
A. Yes.
Q. So the suspect of an on-line operation, as we've been talking about, would likely never meet that undercover deputy in person, correct?
A. If they don't show up.
Q. Can you explain that?
A. So if we have one of our investigators that is communicating covertly and that person is lured to a certain location or they travel on their own, obviously, for the purpose of having sex, that deputy makes the arrest or is present during the takedown, that happens. That can happen.

Q. Okay.

A. And has happened.

Q. That would be the same deputy that is the one interacting with them?

A. Yes, because that person interacting is involved in that investigation. Typically they are on-site, they are on scene during any takedown because we have to communicate directly with that person, what is happening now, he is saying that he is arriving in a white van, those types of things where we're in direct communication. We go out on the street to these locations where this person is arriving to be arrested.

Q. Right. You talked more about these types of investigations that require the gathering of digital evidence that maybe aren't related to trying to lure someone to a spot for sex or something, like are there investigations that happen on-line that don't necessarily involve the luring of a suspect to a physical location?

A. Yes.

Q. Those investigations, you would probably -- there would never be a face-to-face interaction with the suspect?

A. Yes.

Q. There would be significantly less risk, you would agree, for an undercover deputy performing these interactions which would never lead to a meeting with a suspect?

A. I could give you examples on both ends but yes. If, for example -- if it's something, for example, like a scam, right, our general investigators, our detectives that are fugitive operate outside of their fugitive work. When there is a threat to someone in the courts, this type of scam comes in and comes to our plate, they jump out of their roles as fugitive investigators and operate as our general investigators in our office. Because we only have so many deputy sheriffs to go around, they're kind of our go-to investigators. If there is a scam, there has been several times where we've actually physically met these folks that are trying to scam money. There are times we can't identify them at all because they're trying to do it by way of telephonic, you know, bitcoin, send this money here and we'll release you from your obligations and we never find them but there have been some that wanted cash and we've had to go out and set up sting operations where we can intercept these folks that are trying to scam doctors or lawyers.

Q. I think the term sting operations is helpful. I'm asking, to close the loop here, not all undercover operations lead to sting operations, right?

A. Yes, they don't always lead to sting operations, yes, you're correct.

Q. I think you also testified earlier about individuals operating drones in an undercover capacity. Could you describe that?

A. So we have about five or six that are active drone operators that go out for missing children, folks that are indigent, folks that may have dementia, but they also go out when they get called by the federal task force officers to sit in surveillance on drug houses, the sale of illegal weapons, they have to be in the community in a remote location trying to get video or follow these folks. A lot of these times these people aren't static so they move. Sometimes the surveillance locations change rapidly. They have to then get their equipment up and be in that modus as we discussed so. But that is not the only thing they do. That is what I mean when I say multi-facetted. One drone operator may be a current detective, one may be a writ server that has the equipment. There are all sorts of variables but I wanted to give you an idea of how much we do.

Q. When a drone operator is in the process of operating the drone undercover, they are not likely to ever have a face-to-face interaction with the suspect that they are observing?

A. Correct.

Q. All deputies that are tasked with some of these undercover assignments that we've been talking about, they can perform covert law enforcement operations, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. An officer or deputy role can change quickly from performing covert activities to performing overt activities, right?

A. Yes.

Q. During these overt operations, officers may need to identify themselves to the public, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. For instance, if a deputy is making an arrest, they would identify themselves to who they are arresting?

A. That's correct.

Q. These officers, when they are performing overt operations, they have name tags that identify them as deputies?

A. It depends on what they're doing. When they're making an arrest, if they are fugitive, they may not have the name tag on the shirt because they are in plainclothes.

Q. But when they are wearing their uniform performing overt activities, they would have the name tag?

A. Correct.

Q. They could make an arrest with their uniform on during the day and that night it is possible they could be tasked with some undercover operation?

A. That is correct.

Q. There are deputies in Allegheny County courthouses who are in uniform with badges and name tags, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. It is possible these deputies in these courthouses could be assigned to an undercover role at some point in the future, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. But right now as these deputies are stationed in the courthouses, they are identifiable to the public, correct?

A. Yes.

MR. SINGER: No further questions.

MR. GOODRICH: Very briefly.

REDIRECT-EXAMINATION

BY MR. GOODRICH:

Q. When your undercover police make an apprehension, do they identify themselves as police, sheriff, or Jack Goodrich?

A. They announce their selves as police or sheriff deputy.

Q. When you have people that work in court and uniform and go undercover at night, are they in uniform?

A. No.

Q. Is that the whole point of being undercover?

A. Yes.

MR. GOODRICH: Thank you.

THE COURT: Anything else?

MS. BURKE: No, thanks, Your Honor. Thank you for your testimony.

MR. GOODRICH: That's all we have, Your Honor.

MS. BURKE: Where do we submit the exhibits?

THE COURT: On the first floor is the Department of Court Records.

MS. SHIELS: You can do it on-line.

MS. BURKE: Okay. I'll take it downstairs. I like my paper.

THE COURT: Would you like to make closing remarks?

MR. GOODRICH: Just very briefly, just closing remarks, Your Honor. To reiterate here, we're not trying to be a pain in the backside and block anything or hide anything. The issue comes down, and you heard the chief say, we just can't tell you with one hundred percent preciseness who will and will not be otherwise we would have been part of the consent.

As you've heard the Chief tell you, multi-facets of what the Sheriff's Office does. We don't know from day-to-day who may be going undercover and who may not. You heard the example we may get a call tomorrow from the feds and we have to have 30 people go under a task force. We told you and I think the important thing here for you to understand is when I got my eyes on it and the Chief got his eyes on it, as Ms. Burke stated to begin with and Mr. Singer, originally, it was 80 percent and that in 2023 it was only 17 percent. Then it jumped up to 80 percent. Now it's down to 42 percent. We're trying to be reasonable, we're trying to be fair, we're trying to be honest. The problem is we can't tell you with preciseness. He told you the list that is less than six-months old is already outdated. What are we supposed to do? Every month change the list? That falls right into the predator's, creep's, criminal's hands because they can compare lists and see who is this month, who ain't this month, oh, I guess they're undercover. The issue with going undercover, the last question I asked, they're undercover, they're doing covert operations. They're doing very risky things to keep the people of this community safe, to keep this courthouse safe. They have to be able to do it the way they're doing it to protect themselves.

We understand the public has the Right to Know and it's public money and it is an asset and they have the right to know. Up to a certain point. The point is when it is the safety of my officers and my deputies and my employees that I'm charged to represent as the solicitor who is undercover and who is not. We told you 45 are stagnant. Out of that, there's another 40-some, 50-some that happen to come in and out. The ones that we've told you, and there may be an exception here or there, but for the most part there is not.

The statutory construction of performing as set forth in the opinion that we're here for today, it is very statutory, it's very simple, Section 708(B)(6)iii whether performing present, past, or future thereby based on the plain language of the section the rules of statutory construction the county may redact law enforcement's names who either is performing, was performing, or will be performing undercover or covert activities. That is out of the opinion. It doesn't say what performing is. This interpretation which we're requesting this Honorable Court to take and cover also is that performing past, present, or future. We're talking about in a year. We're not talking five years, we're not saying for the next five years. They have the right to do this every year, to come back and ask for a list. We have the right to look at our list and keep the safety of our people and employees. That's all we're asking. We're trying to be fair and we're trying to comply with the law.

I apologize for that one page not being in there. I'm not going to belabor this. You know what the law is, Your Honor. You're well educated.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Goodrich.

MR. GOODRICH: Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: Mr. Singer.

MR. SINGER: Thank you, Your Honor. I'll note first that this Court had the ability to perform a de novo review and take into account the testimony and exhibits and plain language of the RTKL. Just because the OOR interpreted the RTKL issues here, does not mean that Your Honor is bound by that interpretation.

I actually think this has possibly become pretty easy. You heard testimony from the Chief today along with Mr. Goodrich that there is a static list. There is a hard number that the Sheriff's Office is aware of who is on a consistent basis performing undercover operations. If that list exists, we do not disagree that those deputies can be redacted pursuant to the RTKL exemption. The stipulation in terms of the redaction to the list of police officers that have been referenced by Mr. Goodrich a few times, I'll note that at no point in that stipulation is there a reference to officers that may go undercover or in a category that at some point may go undercover. It is that officers, I could read it, but that went undercover for the year prior to the annual RTKL request or currently performing undercover operations and will be performing undercover operations for a period of 12 months.

We are being reasonable. We would like consistency and to know every year when our clients make an RTKL request that they know what is going on. What you saw today with Mr. Goodrich and his questioning of the Chief along with them trying to understand the list in front of them was show us the issue here. They are not sure which names are the names of those that are definitely going undercover, may go undercover, and at some point in the past undercover. We want the static list to be the list that is redacted and all other officers to be unredacted because the RTKL presumes access.

The word at issue is performing. We do not think this is necessarily a difficult issue. The fact that, as Mr. Goodrich said in his opening, that they don't have a crystal ball doesn't mean that they can just overredact and take away access to the names of public employees. While it may as it seems from where this case has gone to be easier for the police to understand who at any given point goes undercover, that doesn't mean that the Sheriff's Office on the other hand decides to interpret the law the way that they do and overredact names and go beyond what we think the law provides which is that there should be some certainty with respect to who is going undercover and that only those that there is certainty for should be redacted.

Quickly, also to say with respect to the personal security exemptions, you heard today from the Chief that undercover deputies do not always have actual in-person interactions with suspects. You also heard that deputies remain identifiable with overt operations that they perform the same day that they are performing covert operations. We could submit papers after this but I will also point you to McGill which clearly says that officers -- give me one second -- that nothing shall preclude the release of a name of a public official or agency employee. The only name of a public employee that cannot be released is a name of an individual whether a police officer or not who is engaged in undercover or covert work.

The Sheriff's Office today has not proved by a preponderance of the evidence that all the deputies that have been redacted are engaged in undercover overt work. So for the aforementioned reasons, petitioners request that Your Honor reverse the OOR determination of March 3, 2025, declare that the Sheriff's Office has not met its burden of proving they are permitted to withhold the names of the deputies at issue, and order that the Sheriff's Office disclose the names of deputies who at the time of petitioners' request were not assigned to perform undercover or covert activities. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you both. Do the parties want to file findings of fact and conclusions of law?

MR. GOODRICH: I don't think it is necessary, Your Honor.

MS. BURKE: Your Honor, in cases with your predecessor Right to Know law judge, we did file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. We feel that is helpful but if the Court deems it unnecessary, we can forego that.

MS. SHIELS: I will do that on behalf of the OOR office.

MS. BURKE: From the petitioner's perspective, we would prefer to supplement the Court's understanding of our position with findings of fact and conclusions of law.

THE COURT: I do not view it as supplementing but an opportunity for the parties to put in writing their findings of fact and what they believe the conclusions of law are for the Court to do.

MS. BURKE: We appreciate that opportunity.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Goodrich.

MR. GOODRICH: I'm going to rely on the brief. That is why we're here.

THE COURT: I'm sorry?

MR. GOODRICH: I'm going to rely on the opinion, that is why we're here. I think it is very succinct and to the point.

THE COURT: If you would like to file findings of fact and conclusions of law, you are welcome to it. How much time do you need? You are not required to but if you would like to.

MS. BURKE: Two weeks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We'll give you more. I mean, let's be honest, it's the holidays.

MS. BURKE: Okay, how about a month? Am I pushing anyone's luck?

THE COURT: Not at all. That is more than fine. Ms. Shiels, do you need more?

MS. SHIELS: No, 30 days, absolutely.

THE COURT: Okay, 30 days.

CONCISE OPINION UNDER 65 P.S. §67.1302(a)

REGAN, J.

Adoptior

I adopt all Charie Wolfson and Public Source's (collectively Petitioners and/or Wolfson's), Allegheny County, and Allegheny County Sheriff's Office (collectively Respondents and/or County) Proposed Findings of Fact as filed with this court on January 2, 2026, and December 30, 2025, respectively.

I adopt Petitioner's Proposed Conclusions of Law 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 34, 47, 48, 49, 55, and 56 and, the Respondent's Proposed Conclusions of Law 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 as filed with this court on January 2, 2026, and December 30, 2025, respectively.

Procedural History

On March 31, 2025, Petitioner filed a Statutory Appeal from a Final Determination of the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records (OOR) on Petitioner's

Right to Know Request. On April 1, 2025, this court issued a Writ of Certiorari. On April 14, 2025, the OOR filed the Certified Record with this court.

On October 6, 2025, Allegheny Couty District Attorney Stephen A. Zappala, Jr. and Allegheny County Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus' Uncontested Petition to Intervene was granted. On November 20, 2025, this court approved the Stipulated Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent, Allegheny County District Attorney's Office. On December 2, 2025, Respondent Allegheny County's Motion for Leave of Court to Discontinue/Dismiss Respondent Allegheny County Police Department, which was consented to by Petitioner, was granted.

On December 3, 2025, the court held a one-day trial on Petitioner's Appeal. At the conclusion of the trial, the parties agreed to file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. On December 30, 2025, Respondents filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. On January 2, 2026, Petitioners filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

Discussion

I. Standard of Review

The trial court's is the ultimate finder of fact in a RTKL statutory appeal, its standard review is de novo, and its scope of review is plenary. Bowling v. Office of Open Records, 75 A.3d 453, 474 (Pa. 2013).

II. Argument

A. Whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The issue is whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Right to Know Law ("RTKL") states that "an agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii).

At trial, Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning, testified to the following: he has been working for the Sheriff's Office since 1999 and currently oversees operations; the Sherrif's Office has between 161 and 165 Deputy Sheriffs; the Sheriffs are fully fledged police officers; the Sheriffs Office includes three fugitive units, federal task forces with the FBI and DEA, as well as investigations into sex travelers, sex traffickers, counterfeit merchandise, and drug and gun crimes; and 44 or 45 of those Deputy Sheriffs are performing undercover or covert activities on a regular basis. 12/3/25 Tr. at 30-36.

Pursuant to § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), the Sheriff's Office may redact the names or other identifying information of those individuals.

Furthermore, the Commonwealth Court has stated:

> Section 708(b)(1)(ii) of the RTKL states that records are exempt which, if disclosed, "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to[,] or the personal security of[,] an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). "[U]nder this exception, the agency must demonstrate (1) a 'reasonable likelihood' of (2) a 'substantial and demonstrable risk' to a person's personal security." Del. Cty. v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). In order to show a reasonable likelihood, "[a]n agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture to establish the security-related exceptions under the [RTKL]." California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2018). This Court has "defined substantial and demonstrable [risk] as actual or real and apparent." Carey, 61 A.3d at 373 (emphasis added).

> This Court has recognized that the RTKL's security-related exceptions are of particular concern in police and prison settings. See Carey. This Court has also upheld an OOR determination to exempt from disclosure a record that "would, if made public, assist criminals in their efforts to achieve a criminal objective[.]" Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). Finally, this Court has ruled that opinions regarding safety and security rendered by a law enforcement officer with over 20 years of experience are "not mere speculation or conjecture." Id.

Id. at 183.

At trial, Chief Deputy Manning testified to, in addition to the above, the following: when the Sheriff's Office needs more people to perform undercover or covert activities, it draws from its pool of deputy sheriffs who work "bank hours" in courthouses; the frequency the Sheriff's Office uses additional deputies to perform undercover or covert work "depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well"; the 89 names redacted from the record at issue are those Deputy Sheriffs that perform undercover work, have been in one of those units in the year, or are in the pool of Deputy Sheriffs who may be called upon to perform undercover work; any of those individuals could be assigned to undercover or covert activities; and disclosing names or other identifying information of those individuals, or "doxxing," raised "concerns" regarding "threats" to the Sheriff Deputies and their families. See 12/3/25 Tr. 38-40, 42-44, and 50-51.

Based on Chief Deputy Manning's testimony, this court finds there is sufficient evidence that disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of the said Sheriff Deputies and their families. Furtehrmore, Chief Deputy Manning's testimony at trial, like the testimony in Borough of Pottstown, consisted of much more than a general conclusion of speculative harm. Chief Deputy Manning specifically detailed the real and apparent threats to the Deputies as well as their families.

Therefore, the Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

III. Conclusion

Based on the argument set forth above, this court finds the Final Determination of the OOR is affirmed, and Petitioner's Appeal is denied.

In view of the foregoing, I enter a separate Order of Court:

The issue is whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Right to Know Law ("RTKL") states that "an agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii).

At trial, Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning, testified to the following: he has been working for the Sheriff's Office since 1999 and currently oversees operations; the Sherrif's Office has between 161 and 165 Deputy Sheriffs; the Sheriffs are fully fledged police officers; the Sheriffs Office includes three fugitive units, federal task forces with the FBI and DEA, as well as investigations into sex travelers, sex traffickers, counterfeit merchandise, and drug and gun crimes; and 44 or 45 of those Deputy Sheriffs are performing undercover or covert activities on a regular basis. 12/3/25 Tr. at 30-36.

Pursuant to § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), the Sheriff's Office may redact the names or other identifying information of those individuals.

Furthermore, the Commonwealth Court has stated:

> Section 708(b)(1)(ii) of the RTKL states that records are exempt which, if disclosed, "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to[,] or the personal security of[,] an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). "[U]nder this exception, the agency must demonstrate (1) a 'reasonable likelihood' of (2) a 'substantial and demonstrable risk' to a person's personal security." Del. Cty. v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). In order to show a reasonable likelihood, "[a]n agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture to establish the security-related exceptions under the [RTKL]." California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2018). This Court has "defined substantial and demonstrable [risk] as actual or real and apparent." Carey, 61 A.3d at 373 (emphasis added).

> This Court has recognized that the RTKL's security-related exceptions are of particular concern in police and prison settings. See Carey. This Court has also upheld an OOR determination to exempt from disclosure a record that "would, if made public, assist criminals in their efforts to achieve a criminal objective[.]" Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). Finally, this Court has ruled that opinions regarding safety and security rendered by a law enforcement officer with over 20 years of experience are "not mere speculation or conjecture." Id.

Id. at 183.

At trial, Chief Deputy Manning testified to, in addition to the above, the following: when the Sheriff's Office needs more people to perform undercover or covert activities, it draws from its pool of deputy sheriffs who work "bank hours" in courthouses; the frequency the Sheriff's Office uses additional deputies to perform undercover or covert work "depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well"; the 89 names redacted from the record at issue are those Deputy Sheriffs that perform undercover work, have been in one of those units in the year, or are in the pool of Deputy Sheriffs who may be called upon to perform undercover work; any of those individuals could be assigned to undercover or covert activities; and disclosing names or other identifying information of those individuals, or "doxxing," raised "concerns" regarding "threats" to the Sheriff Deputies and their families. See 12/3/25 Tr. 38-40, 42-44, and 50-51.

Based on Chief Deputy Manning's testimony, this court finds there is sufficient evidence that disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of the said Sheriff Deputies and their families. Furtehrmore, Chief Deputy Manning's testimony at trial, like the testimony in Borough of Pottstown, consisted of much more than a general conclusion of speculative harm. Chief Deputy Manning specifically detailed the real and apparent threats to the Deputies as well as their families.

Therefore, the Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

III. Conclusion

Based on the argument set forth above, this court finds the Final Determination of the OOR is affirmed, and Petitioner's Appeal is denied.

OPINION

Charlie Wolfson and Public Source (Appellants, Petitioners, and/or Wolfson) filed an Appeal from this court's Order of February 20, 2026, denying Petitioner's request for records and affirming the March 3, 2025, Final Determination of the Office of Open Records (OOR) at the docket number AP 2025-0246. For the reasons set forth below, the Order should be affirmed.

Relevant Factual and Procedural History

On March 31, 2025, Appellants filed a Statutory Appeal from a Final Determination of the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records (OOR) on Petitioner's Right to Know Request. On April 1, 2025, this court issued a Writ of Certiorari. On April 14, 2025, the OOR filed the Certified Record with this court.

On October 6, 2025, Allegheny County District Attorney Stephen A. Zappala, Jr. and Allegheny County Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus' (Appellee, Respondent, and/or Sheriff Kraus) Uncontested Petition to Intervene was granted. On November 20, 2025, this court approved the Stipulated Discontinuance/Dismissal of Respondent, Allegheny County District Attorney's Office. On December 2, 2025, Respondent Allegheny County's Motion for Leave of Court to Discontinue/Dismiss Respondent Allegheny County Police Department, which was consented to by Petitioner, was granted.

On December 3, 2025, the court held a one-day trial on Appellants' Appeal from the OOR. At the conclusion of the trial, the parties agreed to file proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. On December 30, 2025, Appellee filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. On January 2, 2026, Appellants filed their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

On February 20, 2026, this court filed a Concise Opinion and Order of Court denying Appellant's request for records and affirming the March 3, 2025, Final Determination of the OOR. On March 16, 2026, this court filed an Amended Concise Opinion[1]. On March 19, 2026, Appellants filed their Notice of Appeal.

[1] The trial court adopted all Appellants' and Appelle's Proposed Findings of Fact as filed with this court on January 2, 2026, and December 30, 2025, respectively. The trial court also adopted Appellants' Proposed Conclusions of Law 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 47, 48, and 49, and the Appellee's Proposed Conclusions of Law 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 as filed with this court on January 2, 2026, and December 30, 2025, respectively.

Discussion

I. Standard of Review

The trial court is the ultimate finder of fact in a RTKL statutory appeal, its standard review is de novo, and its scope of review is plenary. Bowling v. Office of Open Records, 75 A.3d 453, 474 (Pa. 2013).

II. Argument

A. Whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, since disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Sheriff's Office can redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, since disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The issue is whether the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, since disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

The Right to Know Law ("RTKL") states that "an agency may redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(6)(iii).

At trial, Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Manning, testified to the following: he has been working for the Sheriff's Office since 1999 and currently oversees operations; the Sheriff's Office has between 161 and 165 Deputy Sheriffs; the Sheriffs are fully fledged police officers; the Sheriff's Office includes three fugitive units, federal task forces with the FBI and DEA, as well as investigations into sex travelers, sex traffickers, counterfeit merchandise, and drug and gun crimes; and 44 or 45 of those Deputy Sheriffs are performing undercover or covert activities on a regular basis. 12/3/25 Tr. at 30-36.

Pursuant to § 67.708(b)(6)(iii), the Sheriff's Office may redact the names or other identifying information of those individuals.

Furthermore, the Commonwealth Court has stated:

> Section 708(b)(1)(ii) of the RTKL states that records are exempt which, if disclosed, "would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to[,] or the personal security of[,] an individual." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(1)(ii). "[U]nder this exception, the agency must demonstrate (1) a 'reasonable likelihood' of (2) a 'substantial and demonstrable risk' to a person's personal security." Del. Cty. v. Schaefer, 45 A.3d 1149, 1156 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). In order to show a reasonable likelihood, "[a]n agency must offer more than speculation or conjecture to establish the security-related exceptions under the [RTKL]." California Borough v. Rothey, 185 A.3d 456, 468 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2018). This Court has "defined substantial and demonstrable [risk] as actual or real and apparent." Carey, 61 A.3d at 373 (emphasis added).

> This Court has recognized that the RTKL's security-related exceptions are of particular concern in police and prison settings. See Carey. This Court has also upheld an OOR determination to exempt from disclosure a record that "would, if made public, assist criminals in their efforts to achieve a criminal objective[.]" Adams v. Pa. State Police, 51 A.3d 322, 325 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). Finally, this Court has ruled that opinions regarding safety and security rendered by a law enforcement officer with over 20 years of experience are "not mere speculation or conjecture." Id.

Id. at 183.

At trial, Chief Deputy Manning testified to, in addition to the above, the following: when the Sheriff's Office needs more people to perform undercover or covert activities, it draws from its pool of deputy sheriffs who work "bank hours" in courthouses; the frequency the Sheriff's Office uses additional deputies to perform undercover or covert work "depends on the number of investigations we have in one year's time, how busy the task forces are, but many of them work other details that are related to covert work as well"; the 89 names redacted from the record at issue are those Deputy Sheriffs that perform undercover work, have been in one of those units in the year, or are in the pool of Deputy Sheriffs who may be called upon to perform undercover work; any of those individuals could be assigned to undercover or covert activities; and disclosing names or other identifying information of those individuals, or "doxxing," raised "concerns" regarding "threats" to the Sheriff Deputies and their families. See 12/3/25 Tr. 38-40, 42-44, and 50-51.

Based on Chief Deputy Manning's testimony, this court found there was sufficient evidence that disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of the said Sheriff Deputies and their families. Furthermore, Chief Deputy Manning's testimony at trial, like the testimony in Borough of Pottstown, consisted of much more than a general conclusion of speculative harm. Chief Deputy Manning specifically detailed the real and apparent threats to the Deputies as well as their families.

Therefore, this court found the Sheriff's Office could redact the name or other identifying information relating to an individual who was not "performing" an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, since disclosure would be reasonably likely to result in a substantial and demonstrable risk of physical harm to or the personal security of an individual.

Conclusion

Pursuant to §708(b)(1)(ii) and (6)(iii) of the RTKL and case law cited above, the requested records are exempt from disclosure. Therefore, based on the argument set forth above, the trial court's Order of February 20, 2026, should be affirmed.

FINAL DETERMINATION

IN THE MATTER OF	:
CHARLIE WOLFSON AND PUBLIC SOURCE,	:
Requester	:
	:	Docket No: AP 2024-0196
v.	:
ALLEGHENY COUNTY,	:
Respondent

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On January 4, 2023, Charlie Wolfson, on behalf of Public Source (collectively "Requester"), submitted a request ("Request") to Allegheny County ("County") pursuant to the Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL"), 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 et seq., seeking:

> ... [I]nformation for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2023, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file. Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay.
> This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

On January 11, 2024, the County partially granted the Request, by directing the Requester to Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center (WPRDC) website[1] to gain access to the responsive County employee salary information, pursuant to 65 P.S. § 67.704(b)(1), but explaining that "a complete file for 2023 will not be available/posted until the end of January."

On January 16, 2024, the Requester appealed to the Office of Open Records ("OOR"), challenging the County's response and stating grounds for disclosure. The OOR invited both parties to supplement the record and directed the County to notify any third parties of their ability to participate in this appeal. 65 P.S. § 67.1101(c).

On January 31, 2024, the County submitted a position statement, arguing that it granted access to the information that existed on the date of the Request and that the Section 704(b)(1) of the RTKL permits an agency to respond to a Request by directing the Requester to a publicly accessible website. 65 P.S. § 67.704(b)(1). In support of its position, the County submitted the affidavit, made under penalty of perjury, from Jessica Garofolo, the Director of Allegheny County Administrative Services and the County Open Records Officer ("Garofolo Affidavit"). The Garofolo Affidavit included a link to the WPRDC website that, as of the date of the submission, contained the complete dataset of employment information on all County employees for the year of 2023.

On February 7, 2024, the Requester submitted an unsworn statement, asserting that the "publicly available data includes redaction of names of far more law enforcement officers than those who are involved in undercover activity. In the county sheriff's department, more than three quarters of all employee names have been redacted. For the county police department, more than two thirds of all employee names have been redacted." The Requester acknowledges that Section

708(6)(C) exempts from disclosure the names of law enforcement officers if they are performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity, but argues that the County must affirm that "all 396 redacted employees are 'performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity'." See 65 P.S. § 67.706(C)(iii).

On February 14, 2024, the OOR requested that the County provide a supplemental submission addressing the Requester's claim that the County has not proven that all redacted names of law enforcement employees are exempt under 65 P.S. § 67.706(C)(iii). The OOR directed the County to submit the supplemental submission by February 20, 2024. To date the County has not made the submission.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The County is a local agency subject to the RTKL. 65 P.S. § 67.302. Records in the possession of a local agency are presumed to be public, unless exempt under the RTKL or other law or protected by a privilege, judicial order or decree. See 65 P.S. § 67.305. As an agency subject to the RTKL, the County is required to demonstrate, "by a preponderance of the evidence," that records are exempt from public access. 65 P.S. § 67.708(a)(1). Preponderance of the evidence has been defined as "such proof as leads the fact-finder … to find that the existence of a contested fact is more probable than its nonexistence." Pa. State Troopers Ass'n v. Scolforo, 18 A.3d 435, 439 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011) (quoting Pa. Dep't of Transp. v. Agric. Lands Condemnation Approval Bd., 5 A.3d 821, 827 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2010).

1. The County provided records on appeal

The County states that the WPRDC is now complete and that the full employee dataset for 2023 is available at the link provided in the final response. The Garofolo Affidavit states, the following:

> 3. The County publishes a dataset of information about all employees annually in late January. The dataset includes information about all County employees for the previous year. The dataset is available to the public at https:// https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries. At the time that we received [the] [R]equest, information for 2023 was not yet available.
>
> 4. The dataset includes the following fields: first name, last name, department, job title, elected official, date started, sex, ethnicity, original start date, date terminated, pay status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, incentive pay, gross pay. The names of several individuals who work for the County Police Department are redacted.
> 5. On January 11, 2024, I sent [the Requester] a letter explaining that he could find the information he sought on the Internet, and I provided the website address. I also explained that "a complete file for 2023 will not be available/posted until the end of January."

Under the RTKL, a statement made under penalty of perjury may serve as sufficient evidentiary support. See Sherry v. Radnor Twp. Sch. Dist., 20 A.3d 515, 520-21 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2011); Moore v. Office of Open Records, 992 A.2d 907, 909 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2010).

The parties do not dispute that Section 704(b) of the RTKL permits an agency to respond to a request for records "by notifying the requester that the record is available through publicly accessible electronic means[.]" 65 P.S. § 67.704(b)(1). If a requester is unwilling or unable to access the records electronically, the requester may "submit a written request to the agency to have the record converted ...." 65 P.S. § 67.704(b)(2). The Requester's appeal statement demonstrates that he was able to access the WPRDC website, especially in light of the fact that in the statement the Requester disputes the redaction of law enforcement officer names and is able to pinpoint the exact number of redactions being challenged. Nothing in the record indicates that he sought hardcopies from the County. Therefore, the appeal as to the unredacted responsive information that is available on the WPRDC website, is dismissed as moot.

2. Redactions under the RTKL

The County has not claimed any specific RTKL exemptions that would permit the withholding or redaction of records. Further, while the Section 708(b)(6) of the RTKL authorizes the withholding of certain pieces of personal identification information, Section 708(b)(6)(C)(ii) expressly states, "[n]othing in this paragraph shall preclude the release of the name, position, salary, actual compensation or other payments or expenses, employment contract, employment-related contract or agreement and length of service of a public official or an agency employee." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(C)(ii); see also Pa. State Police v. McGill, 83 A.3d 476, 480 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2014). Further, the OOR notes that Section 708(b)(6) does not exempt from disclosure any person's name other than those of spouses and beneficiaries, and undercover or covert law enforcement officers. See 65 P.S. §§ 67.708(b)(i)(B) and (C)(iii). Relative to the Requester's argument however, Section 708(b)(6)(C)(iii) provides an exception that permits the redaction of the "name or other identifying information relating to an individual performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity from a record." 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(C)(iii).

In this matter, the Requester argues that the County's records are "inadequate" because the dataset "includes redaction of names of far more law enforcement officers than those who are involved in undercover activity." (Emphasis added). The Requester asserts that the number of names redacted for the County Sheriff's Department and the County Police Department is 396 individuals and "presuming that not all redacted individuals are engaged in under cover or covert work," the County should be directed to provide all of the "names, along with the other information originally requested" or affirm that the individuals are engaged in such work. A review of the dataset furnished on the WPRDC website shows that the names redacted for the Sheriff's Department and the Police Department contain all of the other categories of requested information and not every officer's name is redacted. However, while, the Requester acknowledges that Section 708(b)(6)(C)(iii) authorizes the names of individuals performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity and, in the Request, expressly stated that the County could redact law enforcement officer data "with names redacted as need for undercover officers," the County's evidence does not provide details or even a general description regarding the nature of the undercover or covert operations work engaged in by nearly 400 County law enforcement employees. Rather, the Garofolo Affidavit simply states, "[t]he names of several individuals who work for the County Police Department are redacted." See ¶ 4. In addition, when provided the opportunity to address the Requester's argument or support the claimed exemption, the County failed to respond. Therefore, based on the evidence presented, the County has not proven that all redacted law enforcement officer names are exempt pursuant to Section 708(b)(6)(C)(iii).

It is not clear from the appeal or either parties' submission what employment information from 2023, was contained in the dataset on January 11, 2024, when the Requester was directed to the WPRDC website; however, to the extent that any other information was redacted from the information contained in the dataset on the date of the Request, the County has not presented any evidence to support any other exemption under the RTKL.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the appeal is granted in part, denied in part and dismissed as moot in part, and the County is required to conduct a supplemental review of law Sheriff's Office and Police Department officer's names that are redacted from the WPRDC website based on 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(C)(iii) to ensure only exempt names have been redacted. The County is further ordered to submit an affidavit or attestation describing the supplemental review and supporting any redactions to the Requester within thirty days. This Final Determination is binding on all parties. Within thirty days of the mailing date of this Final Determination, any party may appeal to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas. 65 P.S. § 67.1302(a). All parties must be served with notice of the appeal. The OOR also shall be served notice and have an opportunity to respond according to court rules as per 65 P.S. § 67.1303, but as the quasi-judicial tribunal adjudicating this matter, the OOR is not a proper party to any appeal and should not be named as a party.[2] All documents or communications following the issuance of this Final Determination shall be sent to oor-postfd@pa.gov. This Final Determination shall be placed on the OOR website at: http://openrecords.pa.gov.

RE: Wolfson and PublicSource v. Allegheny County OOR Dkt. AP 2024-0196

Dear Attorney Shiels and Ms. Garofolo:

Based on a review of the submissions in this matter, we require further supplementation of the appeal record. To that end, the County should submit a supplemental submission, addressing the Requester's argument regarding the redactions made pursuant to Sec. 708(b)(6)(C)(iii) of the RTKL. The submission should be filed by the close of business on Feb. 20, 2024.

In addition, in order for Attorney Shiels to have access to the electronic docket in this appeal, an Entry of Appearance must be completed and submitted for login credentials to be issued to gain docket access. The electronic form found on the OOR's website is the most efficient and expedient method of filing: https://www.openrecords.pa.gov/Appeals/EntryOfAppearance.cfm.

If you have any questions, please advise.

Dear Appeals Officer Isenberg,

I file this statement of information and legal argument as a journalist employed by PublicSource, regarding the appeal with Docket No. 2024-0196.

On Jan. 4, 2024, I filed a request with Allegheny County's open records officer for the following:

> I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2023, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file. Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position date started, date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay. This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

On Jan. 11, 2024, the County's open records officer denied the request, citing Section 704 (b) (1) of the Right-to-Know Law, which states that the agency can deny a request if the record is available through publicly accessible electronic means.

The county's response in this case is inadequate. The publicly available data does not include all of the records I request, because it does not include the names of all law enforcement officers aside from those involved in undercover activity.

The publicly available data includes redaction of names of far more law enforcement officers than those who are involved in undercover activity. In the county sheriff's department, more than three quarters of all employee names have been redacted. For the county police department, more than two thirds of all employee names have been redacted.

Section 708 (6) (iii) of the Right-To-Know Law permits agencies to exclude the names of law enforcement officers only if they are "performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity."

Presuming that not all redacted individuals are engaged in undercover or covert work, I appeal for the county to furnish documentation including the names, along with the other information originally requested, of each employee that is not undercover or covert. If, indeed, all 396 redacted employees are “performing an undercover or covert law enforcement activity”, I request that the county affirm that fact.

Sincerely,

Charlie Wolfson

Re: RTKL Request – Final Response #16351

Dear Mr. Wolfson:

This is in response to your attached request for records made pursuant the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law (RTKL), which this office received on January 4, 2024.

Section 704 (b) (1) of the RTKL states in pertinent part, "an agency may respond to a request by notifying the requester that the record is available through publicly accessible electronic means." Allegheny County employee salary information is available on the publicly available website, namely, the website of the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center (WPRDC). Below is a link to the WPRDC website where you can find Allegheny County employee salary information. However, a complete file for 2023 will not be available/posted until the end of January.

Pursuant to Section 1101 of the RTKL, a party denied access to a requested record may file a written appeal of the denial with the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records ("OOR") within fifteen (15) business days of the mailing date of the local agency's response. The OOR's address is:

IN THE MATTER OF:

CHARLIE WOLFSON,
Complainant, Docket No.: 2024-0196

vs.

Respondent.

STATEMENT OF INFORMATION AND LEGAL ARGUMENT

AND NOW comes the Respondent, Allegheny County ("County"), by and through its undersigned attorney, and files this Statement of Information and Legal Argument in compliance with the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records' Official Notices of Appeal dated January 18, 2024, and states as follows:

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On January 4, 2024, Charlie Wolfson submitted a request to Allegheny County for records pursuant to the Right to Know Law ("RTKL"). (See Exhibit A.) The request stated:

> I request information for all individuals employed by Allegheny County during 2023, in the form of a digital file such as a .csv or Microsoft Excel file. Specifically, I request the following for each employee: Name, department, job type, job title, date started, current position…date terminated (if applicable), gender, race/ethnicity, employment status, annual salary, regular pay, overtime pay, bonus pay, gross pay. This request includes all law enforcement officers, with names redacted as needed for undercover officers.

The request was given internal number 16351.

The County Department of Administrative Services serves as the County's Open Records Office, and its Director, Jessica Garofolo, serves as the County's Open Records Officer. On January 11, 2024, Ms. Garofolo sent Mr. Wolfson a letter explaining that the information he sought was available publicly on the Western Pennsylvania Regional Data Center ("WPRDC") website. (See Exhibit B.) The letter noted that information about employees who worked for the County in 2023 "will not be available/posted until the end of January." (Id.) Mr. Wolfson filed an appeal to the Office of Open Records ("OOR") on January 16, 2024.

ARGUMENT and CONCLUSION

To support its decision in this case, the County submits an Affidavit from Ms. Garofolo. (See Exhibit C.) She explains that the County publishes the information that Mr. Wolfson seeks online on an annual basis, but that, when the County received his request, information for 2023 was not yet available. (See id. at ¶3.) The Affidavit also states that the information for 2023 is now available at https://data.wprdc.org/dataset/allegheny-county-employee-salaries. (See id. at ¶6.) This dataset contains the same information that Mr. Wolfson requested. (See id. at ¶4.) The OOR should take judicial notice that the dataset can be downloaded as a .csv file.

Section 704(b)(1) of the RTKL provides that "an agency may respond to a request by notifying the requester that the record is available through publicly accessible electronic means." The OOR has consistently held that agencies can refer requesters to Internet locations where the information they requested is publicly available. See, e.g., De Masi v. Upper Darby School Dist., OOR Dkt. AP 2023-0893, Burda v. Montgomery County, OOR Dkt. AP 2022-0810.

The County responded appropriately to Mr. Wolfson based on the information that existed at the time of his request. With this submission, the County is informing him that updated information is available. The RTKL does not require the County to take any further action. Therefore, Mr. Wolfson's appeal should be dismissed.
